APPRECIATION

This has been another eventful year with an outstanding Grand Master to work for and with. Most Worshipful Brother William A. Hooks has endeared himself to countless thousands within the borders of our own Grand Jurisdiction, and to many more throughout all of North America. He is serving with distinction as a member of the Board of Directors of the Masonic Relief Association of the United States and Canada, and as Conference Chairman of the Conference of Grand Masters of Masons of North America.

We have been extremely proud of this Grand Master during his entire administration, but we were even more proud of the way he handled himself and the affairs of the Conference this past February. He has brought much credit and honor to the Grand Lodge of North Carolina, and we regret to see him bow out as our Grand Master.

It is hard to find the words to express my deep appreciation to Brother Dudley and these fine girls in the Grand Secretary's office. We are blessed with an extraordinary group of people in this office, and without intending to be repeating myself, I feel confident in saying that no office or business in this Grand Jurisdiction can boast of so fine a group as we have in this office, and I am sincerely grateful for their loyalty and cooperation.

Respectfully submitted,

CHARLES A. HARRIS, Grand Secretary

REPORT OF THE AUDITOR

(Docket No. 3)

The following report of Brother Walter A. Watts, Certified Public Accountant, Auditor, was presented, entered on the record and referred to the Committee on Finance:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

I have examined the General Fund balance sheet of the Grand Lodge of A. F. & A. M. of North Carolina as of April 30, 1969 and the related statement of income and expense for the year then ended. My examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other audit procedures as I considered necessary in the circumstances.

I suggest that a reconciliation of the Grand Treasurer's bank account, with a list of outstanding checks, should be forwarded to the Grand Secretary's office at the end of each month. An effort should be made to those employed in the Lecture Service to deposit their checks promptly.

My examination of insurance policies in force at April 30, 1969 indicated that the Grand Lodge has ample protection against losses of an insurable nature, with the possible exception of the fidelity bond.

In my opinion, the afore-mentioned balance sheet and related statement of income and expense present fairly the financial position of the General Fund of the Grand Lodge as of April 30, 1969 and the results of operations for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principals applied on a consistent basis.

Respectfully submitted,
WALTER A. WATTS,

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON OXFORD ORPHANAGE

(Docket No. 7)

The following report of the Committee on Oxford Orphanage was presented, entered on the record and referred to the Committee on Finance:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

Your Committee on Oxford Orphanage, Incorporated, made an official visit to Oxford Orphanage on February 21, 1970. Brother James H. Horne and Brother Zeb B. Hill, Jr. were unable to attend due to prior commitments.

Brother Rufus J. Hare, Brother Carl W. Steele, and I accompanied by Worshipful Brother A. D. Leon Gray, Superintendent, toured the campus and various buildings of the Orphanage, meeting many of the children and staff members. Their mutual love and cooperation in addition to the excellent maintenance of the campus made this tour most enjoyable and informative for your committee. After lunch in the beautiful dining room with the children, the committee resumed its meeting in Brother Gray's office.

The 97th Annual Report of the Board of Directors and Superintendent of the Oxford Orphanage covers fully the orphanage activities, statistical and financial status. Your committee feels it is unnecessary to comment further in these areas as this report is both accurate and complete.

Our only recommendation would be in promoting a program of visitation. We believe one visit to the orphanage will mean more to each Mason than all the lectures in the world regarding it. An incentive program similar in recognition as our Twenty-five and Fifty Year Continuous Membership Certificates should be adopted to recognize each Lodge in North Carolina who would send its orphanage committee for a visit each year continuously for a stated number of years; five, ten, fifteen, etc. This approach will give many Masons firsthand knowledge of the orphanage which they may otherwise never enjoy.

We congratulate the Board of Directors, Worshipful Brother Gray and his fine staff for the outstanding job they continue to perform.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN W. BRYAN, JR., Chairman

From the above you will note that the average age of the persons admitted during the year was 77 years, the youngest being 66 and the oldest 92. It will be of interest to you also that 60 per cent of these admissions were sponsored by Lodges and 40% were sponsored by Chapters of the Order of Eastern Star. This is the same ratio which, through the years, has been used for the monetary support from the Grand Lodge and the Grand Chapter. I regret to say that four of the persons admitted during last year have already passed to their Eternal Home.

The occasional visitor of the Home will doubtless hear complaints as well as compliments regarding the food we serve. By way of information to each of you, I am glad to report that we are indeed fortunate in having daily menus prepared by a registered dietitian at one of the local hospitals which are followed by our Home dietitian, Mrs. Stevenson. These menus are rotated weekly on a five-week cycle. Though it will require much space in this report, I think it advisable to take a sample menu of one week chosen at random and include in my report which is as follows:

This menu chart is an example of the food currently being prepared at the Home. The following is the menu served for February 9 through February 15, 1970, for lunch and dinner. All Homes are required to keep and post all menus served.

The Board of Directors is continually working on plans which will assure all Masons and Eastern Stars that the services rendered to and for our Guests will be unsurpassed by any home comparable to ours in this jurisdiction or in the nation.

It is with pride that I call to your attention the fact that the support for the Home during 1969 as compared with that of 1968 showed a very fine increase, the Lodges having a 5.58 percent increase and the Stars having a 17.3 percent increase.

On behalf of our Guests and every staff member, I say thank you sincerely for the privilege of being here at our Masonic and Eastern Star Home.

Respectfully submitted,
TROY G. ROBBINS, Superintendent

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON MASONIC AND EASTERN STAR HOME

(Docket No. 9)

The following report of the Committee on the Masonic and Eastern Star Home, Inc. was presented, received and entered on the record:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

On Sunday, January 18, 1970, Brother Irwin Rowe and his wife along with my wife and I made a trip to Greensboro to visit the Masonic and Eastern Star Home. There we met Brother John E. King and his wife from Farmville, also Brothers James M. Joines and William P. Choate from North Wilkesboro.

We arrived at the Home around ten thirty A. M. The entire Committee was present for this visit. We were met by Mrs. Murray, the matron, who gave us the sad news that Brother Troy G. Robbins was in the hospital suffering with his back. She told us that Brother William K. Price, Business Manager of the Masonic and Eastern Home, was at Church but would be back at lunch time and would see us after lunch. She was very gracious showing us around the building as she took us to see the rooms and talk with the guests. This was one of the highlights and the most enjoyable part of our tour of the Home. The guests all seemed happy, lovable and contented, just like one big happy family. The buildings were clean and well kept, and the rooms were bright, cheerful and home like. Mrs. Murray explained the operation of the Home and how things were done as she showed us around even to the refrigerators in the various halls where the guests could keep their midnight snacks and special tid bits.

We visited the Chapel and saw the beautiful painting of Christ. This painting was done by one of the guests who was eighty years old at the time he painted it on the wall of the Chapel behind the pulpit.

By the time we made our rounds, Mrs. Murray took us to the rotunda, which is near the dining room, to wait for lunch. A lot of the guests were in the rotunda sitting around talking, waiting for lunch. I was trying to line up some of them to take a picture when the dinner bell rang. Well, you would have thought they were a bunch of teenagers the way they took off for the dining room. I only got a picture of their backs.

The meals are served cafeteria style, as Mrs. Murray pointed out, the only thing missing was the cash register. We passed through the line, got our food and ate with them. The food was good and we enjoyed the lunch very much. It was very interesting to talk to the guests.

Brother Price met us after lunch and took us through the kitchen where the food is prepared and the sterilizer where the dishes are washed. The kitchen and everything in it was bright and spotlessly clean.

After the kitchen, he took us to the Infirmary and introduced us to Miss Ruby Madren, head nurse, Mrs. Duncan, R. N. and Mrs. Dolle, L.P.N. Miss Madren showed us around the Infirmary and explained its operation to us. We visited several of the rooms and talked to the patients. They all seemed happy and cheerful.

Brother Price then took us outside and showed us the new Care Center building, which is almost complete on the outside and is expected to be completed some time this year. We also saw the beautiful new Superintendent's home of which every Mason in North Carolina should be proud. We had planned to go by the hospital to see Brother Troy but Mrs. Robbins said that he had been in so much pain that the doctor had him under heavy sedation and that it probably would be better if we did not disturb him at that time. We are sorry that we missed seeing and talking to Brother Troy and trust that he will make a quick recovery from his illness.

Brother Price took us by Brother Troy's office and then to his office and explained to us some of the business of running the Home. At the present time, there are one hundred and forty-two guests at the Home. Twenty-three are on the approved waiting list and twelve are to be voted on at the next meeting of the Board.

We asked Brother Price what was the greatest need at the present time. He stated that was a hard decision to make but one great need was money to complete and equip the new Care Center building. It will cost about eight hundred and fifty dollars to equip a room. He said that any individual, Lodge or Chapter of the Eastern Star wishing to, could pay for equipping one or more rooms. This, of course, would be in addition to our regular contribution.

The Committee, as a whole, were well pleased with what they saw and heard. The Committee agreed one hundred per cent that Brother Troy G. Robbins and his staff should be congratulated and highly commended for the splendid job they are doing in running the Home and keeping our guests healthy, happy and contented. Every one of the Committee expressed the hope that every Mason in North Carolina would some day visit the Home and experience with us that deep feeling of satisfaction in knowing that the small amount we have contributed has done so much.

In conclusion, we wish to say to Brother Troy and his staff, Well Done, Good and Faithful Servants, Well Done.

Respectfully submitted,

KEDAR D. PYATT, P.M.C.L., Chairman

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE OXFORD ORPHANAGE, INC.

(Docket No. 10)

The Board of Directors of Oxford Orphanage presented the following report, which was received, entered on the record and referred to the Committee on Finance:

To the Grand Lodge of Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons of North Carolina:

The Board of Directors of Oxford Orphanage herewith submits its report to the Grand Lodge of North Carolina.

The Board of Directors held its regular meetings throughout the year and harmoniously administered all the affairs of the Orphanage. The Executive Committee and the Local Advisory Board held their meetings and made full reports to the Board of Directors.

The year ending September 30, 1969, was another eventful year of progress for our beloved Orphanage. In spite of the sharp rise of expenses, our Masonic Family again enlarged their charitable expressions and our goals were realized. The beauty of Masonic love continues to shine upon our family in Oxford Orphanage.

The cottage for our Assistant Superintendent was completed and we were enabled to move our caseworker into the old Treasurer's Home to augment our control team upon our campus. The Third Boys Cottage was dismantled and a new cottage is under construction. It will be a memorial to Dr. Robert L. Flowers and house twenty older boys.

During the year we averaged 308 children per day. We closed the year with an enrollment of 311 children and are busy processing applications. The children are enrolled from fifty-four counties.

With understandable pride we survey the total program of our Orphanage. We see the children responding to our program of nurture, thereby being transformed into productive citizens, and we find our staff of workers productively efficient.

We again urge each Lodge to plan a visit to Oxford Orphanage and rejoice in the beauty of Masonic Philanthropy in child life.

Respectfully submitted,
Board of Directors of the Oxford Orphanage, Inc.
WILLIAM A. HOOKS, Grand Master
and Chairman

SUPPLEMENTAL REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE OXFORD ORPHANAGE, INC.

(Docket No. 11)

The Board of Directors of Oxford Orphanage presented the following supplemental report, which was received, entered on the record and referred to the Committee on Finance:

To the Grand Lodge of Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons of North Carolina:

The Board of Directors and Superintendent of Oxford Orphanage published and circulated its Annual Report to the Grand Lodge of North Carolina in December, 1969. This report included the fiscal year ending September 30, 1969. Herewith we make a progress report of the six months period between our last published report and the meeting of the Grand Lodge.

Normal progress has been made in the erection of the Robert L. Flowers Cottage and it will be completed for occupancy about the first of June. This cottage will furnish fireproof, comfortable living quarters for twenty of our teenage boys and replaces the old Third Boys Cottage in the center of our campus.

When our fiscal year closed, our Orphanage had an enrollment of 311 children, being 151 girls and 160 boys. We now have 309 children enrolled, being 160 boys and 149 girls. This is the fourth year where we have had vacancies for girls and a waiting list for boys. At the present time we have a waiting list of twenty-one and are in the process of processing additional applications for admission of children into our Orphanage.

We continue to rejoice in the magnanimous expression of generosity of our Masonic brethren in sustaining the large program of Oxford Orphanage, both in the care and training of children and in enabling us to keep on schedule in our long range building program so that in a few years our entire family will be housed in fireproof cottages of great beauty.

We repeat our invitation to share with us the warmth and beauty of our large family of children and the old campus at Oxford Orphanage.

We recommend that the Grand Lodge continue the same appropriation for the support of Oxford Orphanage for the present year.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM A. HOOKS, *Grand Master
and Chairman*

REPORT OF THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON AREA EDUCATION PROGRAM

(Docket No. 12)

The report of the Special Committee on Area Education Program was presented by M. W. Brother Robert L. Pugh, P. G. M. and referred to the Committee on Masonic Jurisprudence and the Committee on Finance:

To the Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

Your Special Committee on Area Education Program herewith submits its report. Our appointment is best described by Most Worshipful Brother William A. Hooks: "a series of area meetings in the state where all Masons interested in improving themselves in Masonry will be invited to come for a day of down-to-earth discussions on the subject of Freemasonry, led by Masons fully qualified to conduct educational meetings on this subject."

It was the concerted opinion that the responsibility of this special committee was two-fold: firstly, to designate geographic areas for educational meetings accessible to all Masons and secondly, to provide education materials and programs befitting the needs of our Lodges and members.

After comprehensive analysis the realization became paramount that it was functionally necessary to utilize the organizational structure and personnel of our Grand Lodge to achieve a long range educational program that would reach every Lodge in our Jurisdiction.

It became apparent that efficiency in an educational program would largely depend upon the district leadership in inspiring and training the officers of each Masonic Lodge. We realized that District visitations by our Grand Master, as effectually utilized for twenty-five years, were not comprehensively vital to the training program that was needed. Firstly it imposed a burdensome travel agenda upon our Grand Master, which hampered the efficiency of his administrative responsibilities to Masonry and personal business; secondly, it did not permit optimum scheduling of District Meetings; thirdly, it imposed program limitations which curtailed officer training and Masonic Educational leadership; and fourthly, it was paramount that our Grand Lodge Officers were demonstrating great concern in a search for a new approach to our training needs.

Through consultation we discovered that the Special Committee on Wardens Training was in pursuit of a similar approach toward an efficient training program. A Sub-Committee was created to synthesize the study. The members of the Sub-Committee included: Robert L. Pugh, Chairman; C. Wallace Jackson, Vice-Chairman; A. D. Leon Gray, Vice-Chairman; W. W. Mims; B. M. Kahn; S. Frank Noble. This committee discovered that our Grand Lodge possesses unexcelled material for its educational needs, but had not effectively implemented its propagation.

The committee has prepared a Masonic Educational Manual for each of the following personnel: Grand Lodge Officers, District Deputy Grand Masters, District Deputy Grand Lecturers, Masters and Wardens.

We recommend the following for implementation of this training program:

1. "Three Area Conferences" conducted by the Grand Master of Masons in North Carolina with such assistance as he deems necessary. These conferences will be attended by District Deputy Grand Masters, District Deputy Grand Lecturers and District Educational Chairmen. These meetings will be utilized to assist these officers in implementing each District Training Program.
2. "Three District Workshops" conducted by the Grand Master of Masons in North Carolina. These pilot workshops will be attended by the Masters, Wardens and Officers of each Lodge in the specified districts.
3. "District Workshops" in each District in our Jurisdiction. These will be conducted by the District Educational Chairman, assisted by the District Deputy Grand Master and the District Deputy Grand Lecturer, wherein will be provided a training program for the Master, Wardens and Officers of each Lodge in the District.

We recommend that the sum of $10,000.00 be appropriated to defray the expenses of this educational program.

We introduce the following Resolution and Amendment:

WHEREAS, the Grand Lodge of A.F. & A.M. of North Carolina from the beginning has manifested a deep interest in providing for its members every opportunity possible for their increase and growth in knowledge of Masonry; and

WHEREAS, efforts to this end have been somewhat spasmodic and rather loosely organized and projected, notwithstanding the fact that some very excellent and educational programs have been promulgated; and

WHEREAS, it is the conviction of this Grand Lodge that the time has now come when, for the mental, moral and spiritual growth and advancement of our beloved Fraternity in North Carolina, a progressive and enlightening program of Masonic Education, encompassing every district in North Carolina, must be projected at once and continue from year to year, sponsored by the Grand Lodge and prepared and projected by a committee appointed by the Grand Master;

NOW, therefore be it resolved by the Grand Lodge of A.F. & A.M. of North Carolina, in session in its Annual Communication in Durham, North Carolina, April 21, 1970, do hereby endorse and approve the establishment of such a program to be devised and promulgated by a permanent Committee on Masonic Education and the amendment of The Code to provide such a program on the following basis:

FIRST, that a new regulation shall be added to The Code, to be designated Regulation 38-21 and to read as follows: The following officers of the Grand Lodge for the time being and during their respective terms of office shall be ex-officio members of the Committee on Masonic Education, with the right to vote:

The Grand Master
 The Deputy Grand Master
 The Senior Grand Warden
 The Junior Grand Warden

In addition to the ex-officio members there shall be six qualified members with staggered terms to be nominated by the Grand Master and confirmed by the Grand Lodge. The members of this committee first nominated and confirmed shall serve as follows: two members to serve one year, two members to serve two years, and two members to serve three years. At each Annual Communication the Grand Master-elect shall nominate two members, each of them to serve for three years when confirmed by the Grand Lodge. The Grand Master shall designate the chairman of the committee, (33-05).

SECOND, the duties of this committee shall be as follows:

1. To have charge of, to promote, and to implement a continuing State-wide program of Masonic Education as may be deemed advisable by the committee.
2. To promote, and to provide for the implementation in all North Carolina lodges, insofar as is possible, programs of Masonic Education for candidates, members and officers, other than ritualistic coaching, authorized and approved by the Grand Lodge.

THIRD, this committee shall herewith be included among the permanent committees of the Grand Lodge as listed in Reg. 33-01. (3).

Be It Further Resolved, That The Code of 1948, as revised and amended in 1967, be amended at Regulation 35-06(5) to read as follows:

Regulation 35-06(5). To have charge of Masonic ritualistic education in the subordinate lodges and among the members at large. The Board is authorized to prepare and promote such plans, programs, and rules from time to time as may be deemed proper to carry out its duties, provided no program or plan of Masonic ritualistic education shall be inaugurated or promoted until it and the expense thereof have been approved by the Grand Master or the Grand Lodge. [69-07(2)].

Respectfully submitted,

Maurice E. Walsh (407), Chairman

REPORT OF THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON WARDENS' TRAINING PROGRAM

(Docket No. 13)

The following report of the Special Committee on Wardens' Training Program was received and entered on the record:

To the Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

Most Worshipful Grand Master William A. Hooks, Grand Master of Masons in North Carolina, appointed a special committee on Warden's Training. This Special Committee began with the idea of revising the Handbook For The Master, 1961. We realized that this most valuable booklet had been circulated but largely ignored.

Our first concern included the change of designation from Wardens' Training to Officer Training. It was our dedicated opinion that the six years spent as line officers in a Masonic Lodge should be six years of progressive discipline of preparation for the opportunity of serving as Worshipful Master of a Lodge.

We were in agreement to recommend a program of training including the following: proficiency in the Official Standard of the Work; a summation of The Code, including The Preamble and Chapters 49-92; comprehension of The Lodge System of Masonic Education and the booklets prepared by the Committee on Education; understanding of Ceremonies; and a comprehensive plan of programs for tyled, open and social meetings of a Lodge. We discovered that the Handbook for The Master had been reprinted and was ready for distribution.

We discovered that the Special Committee on Area Education and the Special Committee on Wardens' Training were coming closer together in agreement for augmentation of officer training and dynamic leadership for the larger benefit of our beloved order. This resulted in the creation of a sub-committee to unite for the purpose of proposing a workable plan to realize the goals of our ideals.

We are convinced that the material for study and preparation is available in our Grand Lodge Office. We are also convinced that our Grand Lodge must depend upon the District Deputy Grand Masters and the District Deputy Grand Lecturers to execute plans for workshops for study and inspiration in officer training.

We recommend that the activities of the two special committees, Area Education and Wardens' Training be combined and encouraged to implement an effective program of inspiration and training of the officers of our several Lodges.

Respectfully submitted,
A. D. LEON GRAY, Chairman

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF PUBLICATION THE NORTH CAROLINA MASON

(Docket No. 14)

The following report of the Board of Publication of The North Carolina Mason was presented, entered on the record and adopted. The portion involving finance was referred to the Committee on Finance:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

During the year 1969-70 the Board of Publication has continued its efforts to make such improvements in "The North Carolina Mason" as would be possible with the limited funds available.

During its meeting on September 12, 1969 the Board agreed that a change in the editorship of the publication might be advisable and it thereupon selected Brother Allen Colenda, the Director of the Oxford Orphanage Printing Department, to serve in this capacity. Brother Colenda agreed to accept the responsibility and the headquarters of the publication were thereupon and accordingly moved to the Printing Department of the Oxford Orphanage in Oxford, North Carolina.

Since that time the new Editor and the Board have worked diligently to produce a publication in which the Masons of North Carolina could take a justifiable pride. Admittedly, there are still many things that might be done, and perhaps should be done, in order to present a more challenging publication and the Board of Publication pledges its continued efforts to the Masons of North Carolina to do everything possible to the end that we will be pleased with our efforts.

A budget for the ensuing year amounting to the total of $32,320.00 has been prepared and has been submitted to the Committee on Finance. This budget, interestingly enough, is slightly less than the budget under which the Board operated last year.

The Board of Publication is happy to inform you that every Mason in North Carolina is now receiving monthly his copy of the North Carolina Mason at no cost to the member. The Board has constantly been confronted with a number of problems associated with such a tremendous enterprise, but it has sought diligently to eliminate these problems. The Board is not yet fully satisfied with its product and even now it has some changes in view which it hopes to have implemented within the very near future. In this connection, let it be said that the Board will continue its close examination and scrutiny of the Publication and will make such changes as it deems advisable.

Secretary and Managing Director

REPORT OF THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON GRAND LODGE LIBRARY

(Docket No. 20)

The following report of the Special Committee on Grand Lodge Library was read, received and entered on the record:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

Very little headway was made during the preceding year on the establishment of a Grand Lodge Library, or on the enlargement of the Library that we already possess. Two articles have been prepared and have been presented in two separate issues of The North Carolina Mason informing the Brethren throughout the State of the need of Masonic books for the creation of the Grand Lodge Library. Sad to state, only one person responded to the article. This instance was that of a woman in one of our larger towns who stated that her husband had left several volumes of Masonic Literature and that she would be happy to contribute them to the Grand Lodge Library. Contacts were made with one or two of the Masonic Brethren in that area to collect the books as promised but as yet they have not been delivered to the Grand Lodge Building.

The fact we have not made much headway should not deter us in our efforts. The need for a Grand Lodge Library continues to increase day by day and Masons in North Carolina should continue to exert every effort possible to the end that we can have a Library of which we will be proud.

There are many interesting volumes on Masonry that are lying around in various homes throughout the State and if our Brethren will continue to bear in mind the need of assisting in the establishment of a Grand Lodge Library it is believed that surely some fruitful results will be obtained in the very near future. Certainly it is an effort that needs to be emphasized more and more.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON FRATERNAL CORRESPONDENCE

(Docket No. 27)

The following report of the Committee on Fraternal Correspondence was read, entered on the record, adopted by sections and then adopted as a whole:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

We submit herewith our third Annual Report as your Committee on Fraternal Correspondence. We acknowledge the privilege which is ours in doing so.

During the year, your Committee received two requests for fraternal recognition, and the commissioning and exchange of Grand Representatives. The first came from the Grand Lodge of Iran, probably the youngest Grand Lodge in the world—it having been established on March 1, 1969, by 27 constituent Lodges.

Freemasonry has been in existence in Iran since 1918 in lodges chartered by the Grand Lodges of Scotland, France (National) and Germany, with all of which the Grand Lodge of North Carolina enjoys fraternal relations.

The ceremonies of Consecration, Erection and Installation of the Grand Master were participated in by Brother Sir Ronald Orr Ewing, Most Worshipful Grand Master of Scotland; Most Worshipful Brother Ernest Van Hecke, Grand Master of the National Grand Lodge of France, and Most Worshipful Brother Werner Romer, Grand Master of the United Grand Lodges of Germany.

To question the regularity of the Grand Lodge of Iran would therefore be to question the regularity of one or all of the three Grand Lodges which played such an important role in the erection of the Grand Lodge of Iran, and, further, a statement of principles by the Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of Iran as those espoused by and practiced by his Grand Lodge meet all the requirements and fulfill all the conditions of recognition required by the Grand Lodge of North Carolina.

For purposes of information only we insert here a portion of the February 25, 1970 report of the Commission on Information for Recognition of the Conference of Grand Masters of North America as it relates to the Grand Lodge of Iran.

That portion of the report is:

"Last year this Commission reported the impending organization of the Grand Lodge of Iran on March 1, 1969. Pursuant to the joint efforts of the Grand Lodge of Scotland, the National Grand Lodge of France and the United Grand Lodges of Germany and their respective

Grand Masters, the Grand Lodge of Iran was instituted on March 19, 1969, with impressive ceremonies. The three Grand Masters, Brother Major Sir Ronald Orr Ewing, Most Worshipful Grand Master Mason of Scotland, Brother Ernest Van Hecke, Most Worshipful Grand Master of the National Grand Lodge of France, and Brother Werner Romer, Most Worshipful Grand Master of the United Grand Lodges of Germany, were all present and participated in the ceremonies of consecration, dedication and the installation of the new Grand Master, Most Worshipful Brother J. Sharif Emami. There were also present many other distinguished foreign Masons, including Brother Frank Douglas, Right Worshipful Assistant Grand Master of the United Grand Lodge of England. Extensive reports of the ceremonies have been received by the Commission from Brother J. D. Payne, a member of Masonic Lodges in Oklahoma, California and Iran, who acted as the Grand Chaplain. He is a Past Master of Light in Iran Lodge Number 1191 of the Scottish Constitution. The ceremony is also reported in the proceedings of the Grand Lodge of Scotland for the period February, 1969, to January, 1970. (See pages 30-31). There is also an extensive report on the ceremonies by a distinguished English Masonic scholar, Brother Harry Carr, in Volume 81 of the Transactions of the Quatuor Coronati Lodge Number 2076. (See pages 266-79). Brother Carr was present at the consecration of the Grand Lodge of Iran, and his article concludes with this statement:

"The new Grand Lodge is of course assured of full support and speedy recognition by its "parents", the Grand Lodges of Scotland, France and Germany. Its Book of Constitutions, with its codes of "Basic Principles" and "Aims and Relationships" are based directly on the corresponding codes in practice by the United Grand Lodge of England, and with the rulership of the Grand Lodge of Iran in safe hands, as indeed it is, there could be no finer guarantee of its continued success. Let us hope that speedy recognition will follow from the two senior Grand Lodges, England and Ireland, and in due course from all the Regular Grand Lodges in the world."

"It is to be noted that the constitution and laws of the Grand Lodge of Iran were very carefully drafted under Brother Carr's supervision and are very largely based upon the constitution and laws of the Grand Lodge of England.

"Very few Grand Lodges are able to claim the sponsorship received by the Grand Lodge of Iran, and the Commission recommends recognition. Even though recognition is usually a long process, the Commission has been advised that the following Grand Lodges have already recognized the Grand Lodge of Iran: Scotland, France (G.N.L.), Germany (U.G.L.), Argentina, California, District of Columbia, Southern Africa, India, Alabama, Texas, Venezuela, Israel, Colombia (Bogota), Iowa, Georgia, Michigan, Montana, Saskatchewan, San Salvador and Pennsylvania."

Now, therefore, your Committee on Fraternal Correspondence recommends to the Grand Lodge of North Carolina that it extend fraternal recognition to the Grand Lodge of Iran and that in due course Grand representatives be appointed and commissioned, to the end that full fraternal relations be established and enjoyed between the two Grand Lodges.

The second Grand Lodge requesting recognition and the establishment of fraternal relations came from the Grand Lodge of Brasilia in South America.

There are 19 state Grand Lodges in Brazil, 10 of which the Grand Lodge of North Carolina recognizes as regular and with which it enjoys fraternal relations, and all of which recognize the Grand Lodge of Brasilia as practicing regular Freemasonry.

A statement of principles by the Most Worshipful Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Brasilia on behalf of his Grand Lodge and attested by his Grand Chancellor of Foreign Relations fulfills every condition for recognition required by Masonic custom and the Grand Lodge of North Carolina.

Further than this, the Commission on Information for Recognition of the Conference of Grand Masters, of which Conference our Grand Lodge is a member, in its report to the Conference in 1969 while discussing the treaty between the Grand Lodge of England and the Grand Orient of Brazil said, in part, "It has always been the position of this Commission that the state Grand Lodges of Brazil are regular and worthy of recognition."

We are advised by the Secretary of that Commission, M. W. Robert L. Dillard, Jr., that no adverse information pertaining to the Grand Lodge of Brasilia has come to light and that the position of the Commission remains unchanged.

Your Committee recommends to this Grand Lodge that it recognize the regularity of the Grand Lodge of Brasilia and with that recognition recommends the establishment of full fraternal relationship between the two Grand Lodges.

Respectfully submitted,
JAMES G. JOHNSTON, P.G.M. Chairman

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF GENERAL PURPOSES ON THE MEETING PLACE FOR THE ANNUAL COMMUNICATION IN 1971

(Docket No. 28)

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

An invitation was received by the Board of General Purposes prior to the quarterly meeting of the Board on January 9, 1970, from the lodges in the Winston-Salem District, from the District Deputy Grand Master of that District, from the Greater Winston-Salem Chamber of Commerce and other civic organizations in that city, and from the Hotel Robert E. Lee and other local authorities of Winston-Salem, to hold the Annual Communication in 1971 in that city.

After careful consideration the Board voted unanimously to recommend to this Annual Communication that the 1971 meeting be held in Winston-Salem.

Respectfully submitted,
CHARLES A. HARRIS
Secretary to the Board

(A motion was made, seconded and carried unanimously that the 1971 Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge be held in Winston-Salem.)

DISPENSED WITH LABOR

Labor was dispensed with in the Grand Lodge and the Grand Master directed the Grand Marshal to retire and present W. L. Brother Sinclair Tebo, State Executive Officer of the Order of DeMolay and Guil Waddell, State Master Councilor of the Order of DeMolay, who made the following remarks:

Most Worshipful Grand Master, visiting masonic dignitaries, and distinguished officers and members of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina;

I come before you today, in the spirit of brotherhood, to express not only my thanks, indeed, not even the state associations thanks alone, but to commend and pay tribute to a body of men who care about the direction in which our nation is heading, and, are ardently striving to provide that country with a continuing army of capable leadership. This past month, in Omaha, Nebraska, I attended a jurisdictional conference where, I observed, one of the finest groups of young leaders were gathered to bind themselves into a cohesive force of which all could be justly proud. This meeting would never have been possible without the support of masonic bodies around the world such as you. I cannot, in good conscience, come before you and talk of the wonderful year as if nothing else need be done. I do not believe that any leader, regardless of age or position, is ever totally pleased with his administration at the conclusion of his term in office. However, I can say that without your help the success of this past year would be nill. How could we have ever spread the word about and recognize over one hundred masonic leaders in this very room who have aided our order, but the Sinclair Tebos, the Bill Danners, the Bill Hooks, all know how much they have done and how much is left to be done. In the past five years demolay enthusiasm has tripled in comparison to past segments in time. Last year over 1000 young men attended a demolay function somewhere in this state. Your growth and continued prosperity continues to depend on the growth of demolay in this state. Statistics show that the leading Grand Lodges in North America sponsor the leading demolay jurisdictions in North America.

Finally, a brief word about my generation. Yes, it is true that we are an idealistic, rambunctious, and impressionistic generation, but I would only ask you to recall, perhaps your youth or childhood and bear in mind the words of poet Gamieliel Bradford,

Youth is alive, and once we too were young.

Dreamed we could make the world all over new,

Tossed eager projects lightly from the tongue and hoped the hurrying years would prove them true.

We have all heard that youth is our best investment in the future, Demolay without the continued aid of Most Worshipful Grand Master, William Hooks. Had we not been a portion of his program then how would we have been so fortunate as to be able to appear anywhere in N.C. without fear of not being known? If anything, I think that this was the year that I noticed that the people of N.C. stopped asking what is a Demolay and just asked how their son could become a brother? This was not the Demolays who achieved this but the Grand Master of Masons who, through his communications across the state has created an unblemished reputation for the order of Demolay. Dad Hooks has spoken at two of our State Meetings, and, each time he delivered a message which, when taken literally, could not help but improve any man. Without the continued support of the Masons of N.C. how could N.C. have placed first internationally in the number of new chapters instituted and reinstated? Gentlemen, it takes a masonic sponsoring body for the institution of a new chapter, not just 25 young men. N. C. had its best year this past, but its greatest is still to come. With the continued and increased support which the Grand Lodge has given over the past five years, the time is nigh when N. C. will be number one internationally. I could stand here and I believe that this is an analogy applicable to the youth of today. Tell us of our importance in decision making, our responsibility in todays world. Let us learn from your experience. Teach us, nurture us, guide us, but when the time comes, step back and let us play out our role. We are listening to todays leaders profiting from their record and we shall never forget the heritage and history which we shall inherit. I believe that todays youth is ready, their ability and potential above question. Through cooperation and mutual respect we can indeed make this a better world in which to live.

This is applicable especially to Demolay, where a masonic leader has his best opportunity to reach a young man while he is in his most impressionistic state. I thank you once again for the aid which we have received and, in closing, issue a challenge to the Masons of N.C. that I issued last summer to the Demolays of the State: George Bernard Shaw once said, "Some see things as they are and ask why? I see things as they should be and ask why not?" Why can't N.C., in Masonry, Demolay, and Leadership, be number one?

LABOR RESUMED

M. W. Brother William A. Hooks, Grand Master, expressed the appreciation of the Grand Lodge to Mr. Waddell for having addressed the Grand Lodge and urged the membership to continue their active support and participation in the work of the Order of DeMolay in North Carolina. Mr. Waddell was then escorted out of the Grand Lodge and labor was resumed.

REPORT OF THE REPRESENTATIVE TO THE MASONIC SERVICE ASSOCIATION OF THE U. S.

(Docket No. 29)

M. W. Brother L. Pugh, P. G. M., Representative to the Masonic Service Association of the United States, presented the following report, which was read and entered on the record. The recommendation that the Grand Lodge continue its membership in the Masonic Service Association of the United States for the ensuing year was unanimously adopted and the matter of finances referred to the Committee on Finance:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

The Masonic Service Association met in the Diplomat Room of the Shoreham Hotel on February 26, 1970, beginning at 9:00 o'clock in the morning in our Nation's Capital, Washington, D. C. Once again our North Carolina Masons—and there was a large delegation of them present for the meeting—had assembled for the purpose of listening to a report on the progress of the Association during the preceding year.

The meeting was called to order by Most Worshipful Newell A. Lamb of Indiana, the Chairman of the Executive Commission. After the roll call of the member Grand Lodges and a word of welcome by the Grand Master of the District of Columbia, Most Worshipful Brother H. Kenneth Kingsbury, the Association proceeded to elect Most Worshipful Brother Harry E. Wimer, the Grand Master of Wyoming, as the Chairman of the meeting.

The report on the work of the year was presented by the Chairman of the Commission, Most Worshipful Brother Lamm. He reported that no new members had joined the Association in its fiftieth anniversary year and that the membership now continues at forty-three Grand Lodges. Shortly after the fiftieth annual meeting on February 25, 1969, the offices of the Association were moved from the McLachlen Bank Building at 700 Tenth Street N. W., Washington, D. C. to the Victor Building at 724 Ninth Street

N.W., only one block away. The expenses of re-locating all the equipment, printed materials, etc., were defrayed from a reserve which had been set up for that contingency during the preceding four years.

The Chairman reported on the situations in the U.S.A. which required relief during the year. In August, 1969, hurricane "Camille" struck the coast of our southern states with devastating fury. Its effects were felt far northward for the storm caused high winds and heavy rains in many areas. Virginia, for example, suffered serious flooding when heavy rains poured down on its western mountains. Louisiana and Alabama had serious losses because of the storm. The greatest havoc and loss occurred in Mississippi where the hurricane centered its violence.

The Grand Lodges of Louisiana and Alabama felt that they could provide for the relief of distressed Masons in their jurisdiction out of their own resources. In fact, they immediately recognized the greater need of their brethren in Mississippi and with others sent generous help to the Grand Master of Mississippi to provide relief for Masons and their families who were without shelter, food or livelihood or who had suffered physical injury. Virginia appealed to its own brethren to provide relief for Virginia Masons who had suffered from the storm or floods and raised about twenty thousand dollars for that Masonic relief project.

Reports received at headquarters indicated that the Masons in Mississippi had been stricken most seriously and would need help to meet the needs of the victims of hurricane "Camille." After conferring with Grand Master J. Floyd Adams, the Association notified Mississippi's sister Grand Lodges of the seriousness of the situation and of the need for Masonic assistance.

The response was "terrific," as the financial statement concerning Mississippi hurricane relief would show. We have been inspired by the benevolence of our brethren everywhere; and the remarkable help, aid, and assistance furnished by some of the Grand Lodges as a result of a general appeal strengthens the thesis that "when the individual Mason knows, he acts like a Mason."

All digests, short talk bulletins, programs, reports, etc., are distributed as issued to the Grand Masters, Deputy Grand Masters, Grand Secretaries, and to such District Deputy Grand Masters, heads of committees and present and past Grand Lodge officers as the Grand Masters in member Grand jurisdictions have designated. Up to date catalogs of digests, short talk bulletins, plays, and films are available. The digest on "Leadership" has become a best seller. Twelve issues of the Short Talk Bulletins were issued in 1969.

Since the release of the Association's first talking picture in 1956, many prints of pictures now available have been in almost constant circulation. All four of these inspirational addresses require a 16 millimeter sound projector and all run approximately thirty minutes. They continue to be a popular source of programming material in the constituent lodges of member Grand Lodges as well as elsewhere.

The Masonic Hospital Visitation Program carried on by this Association had its beginning in 1944. The program's principal handicap is the fact that it is not well enough known, especially among Masons. As one brother wrote, after being visited by a Masonic Field Agent in a veterans hospital, "I didn't know there was an Association of this kind." We believe that when the members of the craft really know what our field agents are doing, the support which this program needs will be forthcoming and the work of Freemasonry will be strengthened.

We are indeed proud of the conscientious work of our Field Agents and the growing number of volunteers who assist them. Their accomplishments are described in every issue of "Your Masonic Hospital Visitor" which is mailed with every monthly Short Talk Bulletin.

Chief Field Agent William C. Edmunds, and his Deputy Representative, Field Agent Paul S. Murphy of Washington, D. C. continue to serve as Masonry's representatives on the National Committee of the VA voluntary service. Through their work on this National Committee the Masonic Service Association has a voice in shaping the welfare activities of our nation for the benefit of hospitalized veterans. One of the practical advantages to Freemasonry of such membership is the reliance placed by the Veterans Administration in our Association as a source of information and accreditation of Masonic volunteers.

The need for our Association's Hospital Visitation Program has not diminished; the Viet Nam war continues to increase the number of casualties being cared for in VA and other Government Hospitals. Masonic Field Agents are stationed in less than half of our VA Hospitals. We really ought to be ministering to more of those who have borne the battle. Age also is claiming its victims; more sick and infirmed veterans of other wars are being hospitalized. There is an increasing need for your MSA to extend its cable tow to these bedsides, but that requires greater financial support for the program.

All Veterans Hospitals in North Carolina are now being served either by active field agents or by volunteers, with the exception of one. This one is the Veterans Hospital in Durham, North Carolina.

There is still a challenge for Masons in North Carolina. Higher costs are becoming a serious factor in maintaining this program of brotherly love and relief. Last year the Grand Lodge of North Carolina increased its contribution for the hospitalization program to $4,000.00 and it is recommended that an equal amount be placed in the budget for the ensuing year.

The need becomes greater every day and since North Carolina receives so very much in terms of services from the Masonic Service Association in this hospital visitation program than North Carolina has been contributing we must continue to be as liberal as possible.

REPORT OF THE REPRESENTATIVE TO THE GEORGE WASHINGTON MASONIC NATIONAL MEMORIAL ASSOCIATION

(Docket No. 30)

M. W. Brother Robert L. Pugh, P. G. M., Representative to the George Washington Masonic National Memorial Association, presented the following report, which was adopted. The portion of the report having to do with finance was referred to the Committee on Finance:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

The George Washington Masonic National Memorial Association met on Shooters Hill in Alexandria, Virginia, Monday morning, February 23, 1970 at 10:00 o'clock in the beautiful Memorial Auditorium with the President, John H. Hessey, Past Grand Master of Maryland presiding. The Address of Welcome was given by Most Worshipful Brother William T. Watkins, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Virginia and the response was given by the Grand Master of New York, Most Worshipful Brother Charles F. Gosnell. Greetings were also extended by the Worshipful Master of Alexandria-Washington Lodge No. 22. Following this, the distinguished guests were introduced and they came from all corners of the world.

The customary committees were appointed, providing for the visit to the tomb of George Washington and the placing of the wreath therein and also a committee on nominations.

President Hessey then made his annual report in which he expressed first of all his disappointment in the failure of the endowment fund to grow as had been anticipated. He stated that the fund had now passed the halfway mark of two million, six hundred fifty-three thousand, one hundred fifty-three dollars and eighty-five cents. A few years ago the Association had established a goal of five million dollars and had sought repeatedly to get the various grand lodges to adopt the Pennsylvania plan of giving. A few of the States have done so, North Carolina being one of them, but the majority of the States have not yet made an extended effort in this direction. Brother Hessey also reported that the new heating system which last year he had reported as being so necessary had now been installed and that because of the policy adopted by the Association a few years ago of setting aside a goodly sum of money each year to take care of large expenditures such as this heating system whenever need arose that all expenses in connection with the installation of the heating system had been taken care of.

President Hessey also expressed a deep concern with the reduced contributions being made to the maintenance and operation fund. He reported that contributions from the Grand Lodges for this fund have been declining during the last few years. He made a very stirring appeal for more funds from the Grand Lodges.

It was also reported that new brochures in color describing the various apartments of the memorial have now been prepared and are available at fifty cents each. He reported also that the landscaping architect had been employed and that the landscaping program and plans will be completed as funds become available for that purpose.

He reported also on the availability of a new sixteen millimeter sound fourteen million dollars and that it is fully covered by insurance.

In view of the federal legislation establishing the third Monday in February as George Washington's birthday, it was agreed that the bylaws of the Association should be amended to provide for a meeting of the Association on the third Monday in February.

He reported also on the availability of a new sixteen millimeter sound colored motion picture describing the memorial in all of its beautiful details. He stated however, that thus far there had been few requests for its use by the Lodges throughout the country and he made an appeal to the Grand Lodges to avail themselves of such an excellent medium for relating the story of one of the greatest Masons this country has ever produced or that the world has ever known, Brother George Washington. Incidentally, the Grand Lodge of North Carolina now has a copy of this film on hand which any Lodge may obtain merely by requesting its use.

North Carolina, of course, adopted the Pennsylvania Plan several years ago and completed its financial obligation to the Association under that plan. As yet however, not enough Grand Lodges have contributed sufficiently to provide the endowment fund with an amount which would, with interest derived therefrom, permit the Association to operate without the necessity of annual contribution of funds from the Grand Lodges. Until such time as this can be brought to pass, the Grand Lodge of North Carolina deems it a continuing obligation on its part to continue its annual contribution to the Association and your Representative herewith makes this recommendation.

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT L. PUGH, Representative

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON MASONIC CEREMONIES AND MISCELLANEOUS PUBLICATIONS

(Docket No. 31)

The following report of the Committee on Masonic Ceremonies and Miscellaneous Publications was read and entered on the record:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

During the year 1969, the Committee on Masonic Ceremonies and Miscellaneous Publications completed the work on the volume of Masonic Ceremonies which had been begun several years ago. These Ceremonies were compiled after a long series of meetings; they were edited and submitted to the publisher. Later they were distributed to the Lodges throughout the State and the Office of the Grand Secretary now has a considerable supply of the books on hand to take care of the demand for several years to come.

The little pamphlet entitled "On The Threshold" has likewise been re-printed and these are being supplied, one copy to each petitioner who has been elected to receive the degrees of Masonry. This pamphlet is forwarded to him together with a letter of greeting from the Grand Master.

The other three booklets or pamphlets in the series are intended for use by the individual lodges and are to be supplied to the Secretary on demand. The Committee on Masonic Information will go into full and complete details with the Lodge leaders in North Carolina as the new year unfolds.

These three pamphlets also will have to be re-printed but there are sufficient funds on hand to take care of the cost of the publication.

At the present moment, it is not anticipated that any additional ceremonies will be prepared during this year, although it is expected that there will be some miscellaneous publications requested by the Committee on Masonic Education and the Committee stands ready to cooperate in any way possible.

Respectfully submitted,
ROBERT L. PUGH Chairman

REPORT OF THE GRAND MASTER'S COMMITTEE ON DEMOLAY

(Docket No. 32)

The following report of the Grand Master's Committee on DeMolay was received and entered on the record:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

DeMolay in North Carolina has made great progress in the past year. A large part of this is due to the interest of Grand Master William A. Hooks and other Grand Lodge Officers in presenting DeMolay at District Meetings and on other occasions. Credit is also due State Master Councilor Guil Waddell and State Executive Officer Sinclair Tebo. They both have been working and travelling extensively during the year.

During the past year DeMolay in North Carolina has been first or second in the World in forming new Chapters. We have 10 new Chapters, 2 reinstated Chapters and several others in the process of being formed.

North Carolina is fourth in the World in Representative DeMolay Awards. 101 awards were made this year. This is an increase of 220 percent.

902 boys were initiated which gave us a tie for third place in membership and fourth in the overall Sweepstakes.

In Community Service this year, DeMolay raised $800.00 for the North Carolina Arthritis Foundation, is pushing Life Membership in the Knights Templar Eye Foundation, donated 1200 pairs of socks to Oxford Orphanage, participated in Santa Pal Programs for needy children. The Asheville Chapter has completed 9 years perfect attendance at the Veterans Administration Hospital on Sunday mornings pushing wheelchair patients to Chapel. The Weaverville Chapter has recently started taking part in this program. DeMolays from all over the State made their annual Christmas visit to the Masonic and Eastern Star Home.

The last report we received from the State Master Councilor at the Grand Lodge Committee meeting, stated that the State Association had received between $600.00 and $800.00 from the Uncle Card Program. We hope that the State Association can become self supporting in the future. Until that time, the donations from Grand Lodge and other Bodies are greatly needed and appreciated as the State Master Councilor and the DeMolay State Executive Officer both are incurring considerable personal expense in carrying on the work of DeMolay.

DeMolay's greatest need is for more Master Masons to become Advisors to local Chapters. No Chapter has more Advisors than they need. The future of our Country may well rest in the hands of these young men, as well as the future of Masonry.

DeMolay has had a good year in North Carolina and is looking forward to even better years in the future.

Respectfully submitted,
PAUL C. SHERWOOD, Chairman

WILLIAM ARTHUR HOOKS
GRAND MASTER PRESIDING

REPORT OF THE GRAND MASTER

(Docket No. 33)

M. W. Brother William A. Hooks, Grand Master of Masons in North Carolina, delivered the following report, which was referred to the Board of General Purposes. (See Page 98 Docket No. 34 of these Proceedings for the distribution of this report.)

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

BRETHREN:

Welcome to the 183rd Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina. It is good to see each and every one of you here today, and I'm hoping that many more of our brethren from across this great State will join us before this Annual Communication has ended.

To those of you who are the official representatives of your Lodges, to the District Deputy Grand Masters, and to others who qualify as members of the Grand Lodge by virtue of their election or appointment to boards, committees, and commissions, I want to remind you that this is your meeting; and I want to urge you to take an active part in our deliberations during the next two days. While the preliminary work required in preparing for this meeting has been done by the various boards and committees, don't hesitate to let your voice be heard at any time you feel that you can contribute something of value to this meeting.

It is indeed a pleasure to have with us many distinguished guests from other Grand Jurisdictions, and I am happy to welcome them to the fellowship of the Masons in North Carolina. We are glad to have you with us, brethren. We want you to enjoy your stay in Durham, and we hope you will gain something from your visit with us that will prove to be of value to you and to your own Grand Jurisdiction.

OUR FRATERNAL DEAD

We have been fortunate this year in having no deaths among our official Grand Lodge family, but many of our brethren throughout the State have departed this life and "traveled toward that undiscovered country from whose bourne no traveler returns". Appropriate services in memory of these departed brethren will be conducted later in this meeting by the Necrology Committee.

GRAND MASTER'S PROGRAM

There were four items in the Grand Master's program this year: Support of Oxford Orphanage, The Masonic and Eastern Star Home, and The Order of DeMolay for Boys; in addition to celebration of St. John's Days. I have discussed our two Masonic institutions elsewhere in this report. It appears that there has been an increased interest in The Order of DeMolay on the part of the Masons across the State in the past few years. More and more Chapters are being organized in various sections of the State, and there are many Lodges considering the idea of forming new Chapters in areas where none exist at this time. What DeMolay needs most in North Carolina is active and moral support from the Masons in the State. They need leadership to interest the young boys in becoming members of DeMolay, to help them organize new Chapters, and to help them build these Chapters into strong exponents of the teachings of this great youth organization. To those of you who are interested in the future of this great country of ours, who want a part in developing strong leadership which will keep this country on the solid path laid out for it by its founders many years ago, then I urge you to pitch in and help to build a stronger DeMolay. There is evidence of increased interest in the celebration of St. John's Days throughout the State as a result of the emphasis placed on this during the past two years. I would like to urge increased participation in this program by all Lodges and Districts during the coming year.

MASONIC SECRECY

Aside from the items listed in my program this year, there were two subjects which I attempted to stress more than any others. One of these was the prevailing misconception about secrecy in Masonry, not only on the part of the general public, but the Masons themselves. Along with your printed copy of this report you received a reprint of an article entitled, "What Can I Tell Non-Masonic Friends?" We need to continue to place emphasis on this subject until every Mason understands what those few things are that are secret, and why, and until he realizes that the many wonderful teachings and principles of Freemasonry are for everyone. Ours is a great fraternity, and we must stop hiding our light under a bushel.

MASONIC EDUCATION

This is the other item on which I have attempted to place special emphasis this year. There is much that needs to be done in this Grand Lodge to provide a practical educational program, and then carry that program to all the Lodges and all the Masons in the State. Your Education Committees have worked long and hard on this program, and they are now prepared to present their plans to you at this Communication and to begin implementing the program at an early date. The conclusion has been reached that the most urgent problem facing Masonry today is not that of more members or of increased attendance, but rather that of competent and dedicated leadership. This can be accomplished only by the selection of qualified men to serve as officers of our Lodges, followed by a training program over a period of years which will prepare them to serve their Lodges as Master with confidence and zeal. Of equal importance, in my opinion, is the proper indoctrination of our newly raised Master Masons during the first year of membership. Too long have we told our newly made Masons to "have a seat among the brethren," and from then on leave him on his own. Too long have we told him that he is now a Master Mason and that it's up to him to get something out of Masonry if he can; otherwise, the fault is his. Our new educational program is designed to correct these problems, and it's going to take the wholehearted cooperation of the District Deputy Grand Masters, District Deputy Grand Lecturers, Lodge Officers, and all other brethren who are interested in seeing Masonry in North Carolina grow and prosper. Brethren, this program is sorely needed, and it's going to be up to you to make it a success.

MASONIC INSTITUTIONS

Nothing has given me more satisfaction during my year as Grand Master, and for several years prior to that, than to be able to observe at first hand the wonderful work being carried on at our two Institutions, Oxford Orphanage and The Masonic and Eastern Star Home. Through these two remarkable Institutions, you Masons are providing expert and loving care to 320 children from broken homes and 140 old folks who are no longer able to care for themselves. Building programs at both Oxford and Greensboro during the past several years have not only provided new and modern facilities for the comfort and safety of our guests, but have also made it possible for both staffs to provide better service. I cannot say too much in behalf of Brother Troy Robbins, Superintendent of the Home, and Brother Leon Gray, Superintendent of the Orphanage, and their staffs, for the exceptional job done over a period of many years in the operation of these two Institutions. I would also like to express my admiration for the officers and members of the Order of the Eastern Star for their dedicated and outstanding service to the Home. These folks are always ready and willing to go that extra mile.

OUT-OF-STATE-VISITATIONS

It has been our great pleasure to have been the guest of other Grand Lodges during the year at their Annual Communications. We visited Ontario, Louisiana, and Virginia, and were accompanied to the Ontario and Virginia meetings by Worshipful Brother Robert P. Dudley, Assistant to the Grand Secretary.

We were also the guest of the Imperial Council of the Shrine for North America at the Annual East-West football game in San Francisco, to which event we were accompanied by Right Worshipful Brother William W. Mims, Jr., Senior Grand Warden.

Official visitations were made in Florida and Virginia by Right Worshipful Brother Maurice E. Walsh, Deputy Grand Master; in Rhode Island by Worshipful Brother Nathaniel C. Dean, Senior Grand Deacon; in South Carolina by Most Worshipful Brother Robert N. Bass, Jr., Past Grand Master; in West Virginia by Worshipful Brother William L. Mills, Jr., Junior Grand Deacon; in Ohio by Most Worshipful Brother James W. Brewer, P.G.M., Grand Treasurer; in Arkansas by Most Worshipful Brother Charles A. Harris, P.G.M., Grand Secretary; in Delaware by Worshipful S. Frank Noble, Jr., Grand Marshal; in Maryland by Right Worshipful William W. Mims, Jr., Senior Grand Warden and Most Worshipful W. Edward Burrier, P.G.M.

We also attended the Southeastern Masonic Conference in Mobile, Alabama, and the Masonic Relief Association for the United States and Canada which met in Atlanta. We were accompanied to the Mobile meeting by Right Worshipful Brothers Maurice E. Walsh, William W. Mims, Jr., and Berl M. Kahn, and Most Worshipful Brother Robert L. Pugh, P.G.M.

It is my opinion that these out-of-state visitations are most beneficial to us because they provide many new ideas for our use in improving the operation of our own Grand Lodge.

OTHER VISITATIONS

It would be impossible for me to list—over and above our 65 District Meetings—the many additional meetings which I have attended within our own State during the past year, or those which I have had to decline because of a busy schedule. I would, however, like to express my appreciation for the many invitations I have received for Lodge Anniversaries, Award Presentations, Ladies' Night Programs, and Installation Programs. I am also grateful to the Scottish and York Rite Bodies, the Sudan and Oasis Temples of the Shrine, the Order of the Eastern Star, and the Order of DeMolay for the kind invitations I have received from them. I regret very much that it was impossible for me to accept every invitation. As for those meetings I was able to attend, I want to express my sincere appreciation for the gracious manner in which I was received.

DISTRICT MEETINGS

We have held District Meetings in all of the 65 Districts during this past year. It has been a most rewarding experience to be able to meet so many of our brethren throughout the State, and I am grateful for the gracious manner in which I was received at every meeting. I must say, however, that for several months I have felt that we must come up with a more practical program whereby the Grand Master will be able to meet with the largest possible number of Masons, and still not have to travel back and forth across this big State week after week. It is too much of a physical strain on the Grand Master and those traveling with him to hold as many as 65 District Meetings, attend the other meetings which are required, still try to keep his own business going, and have time left in which to give thoughtful consideration to the needs of his Grand Lodge and of Masonry in his Jurisdiction. This matter has been discussed frequently by your Grand Lodge Officers, and a plan is being considered which we hope will solve this problem.

DISTRICT DEPUTY GRAND MASTERS

It is my opinion that the success of any Grand Master's year depends in large measure upon the contribution made by those Masons chosen to represent him in the 65 Districts throughout the State. Many times this year, I have called upon our District Deputy Grand Masters, and in every case they have responded promptly and efficiently. To this fine group of Master Masons who have served so unselfishly during the past year, I extend my sincere appreciation for a job well done.

HONORARY TITLE OF PAST DISTRICT DEPUTY GRAND MASTER

I recommend that this Grand Lodge grant the honorary title of Past District Deputy Grand Master to the following brethren, each of whom is eligible and qualified therefore in accordance with the provisions of Regulation 12-05 of THE CODE:

CERTIFIED LECTURER PROGRAM

Our Grand Lodge should be deeply grateful for the tremendous service rendered to the Craft by our Grand Lecturer, our 65 District Deputy Grand Lecturers, and to the hundreds of Certified Lecturers in this Grand Jurisdiction. I extend to each of these brethren, on your behalf and mine, our sincere thanks for their dedication to Masonry. In some of the informal meetings of your Grand Lodge officers, the opinion has been expressed that this program should be strengthened, and that those participating in the program should receive more recognition. This matter is being considered by your present Grand Lodge officers, and I believe the necessary action to remedy this situation will be forthcoming. The District Deputy Grand Lecturers were invited to attend Grand Lodge this year at the Grand Lodge's expense, as was the custom for many years earlier.

LODGES CONSTITUTED

I had the pleasure of constituting the following lodges that had been working under dispensations granted by M.'W.'. Brother Bass:

- Crissie Wright Lodge No. 741., at Beaufort, on April 19, 1969.
- Mint Hill Lodge No. 742, at Mint Hill, on April 29, 1969.
- J. J. Crowder Lodge No. 743, at Millbrook, on April 30, 1969.

LODGES INSTITUTED

I had the honor of granting dispensations to the following new lodges, and of instituting them on the dates shown:

- Shelby Lodge, U.D., at Shelby, on May 30, 1969.
- Vandora Lodge, U.D., at Garner, on August 4, 1969.
- P. P. Turner Lodge, U.S., at Greensboro, on September 26, 1969.

DISPENSATIONS GRANTED

Up to this writing I have issued a total of 29 dispensations, 12 of which were for permission to fill vacancies in office, six for permission to hold meetings in places other than the regular meeting places, five to reballot on petitions, three to hold meetings without the charter until the Grand Secretary's office could have the said charters laminated, two to exchange visits with lodges in other Grand Jurisdictions, and one to Liberty Lodge No. 45 to erect a one-story lodge building.

PHYSICAL DISABILITY

One of the finest things this Grand Lodge has done in several years, in my opinion, was the action taken in 1964 to amend The Code by eliminating those regulations which prohibited the reception of a petition from one whose physical defects prevented him from conforming literally to the requirements of the Three Degrees, and in turn adding a new regulation placing the responsibility for the approval or disapproval of these petitions directly upon the Grand Master. Many such petitions were received during the year, and I am happy to say that I was able to approve most of them. All disapprovals were based upon Regulation 74-01 (11) which states "Have no physical disability which would prevent him from earning a livelihood or would make him a burden or a charge upon the Craft".

GRAND LODGE AWARDS

There has been an unusual amount of activity this year in the presentation by our lodges of Grand Lodge Awards. The records in the Grand Secretary's office show that the following emblems and certificates have been presented:

1,561 25-Year Service Certificates and Emblems.

294 50-Year Veterans' Award Certificates and Emblems.

28 60-Year Diamond Jubilee Award Certificates and Emblems.

UNOFFICIAL OPINION

I have before me the file of a Charlotte brother who wrote letters to several of his friends known by him to be members of the Craft, in which he urged the support of a candidate for political office who was also a member of the Craft. After careful consideration I issued the following opinion:

"Sometime ago I received copies of a letter which you had written to Masons in the Charlotte area on May 5th urging their support of Brother John Belk in the Mayoral election of May 9th. It was the feeling of some that this letter was possibly a violation of THE CODE.

"An investigation into this matter indicates that these letters apparently were sent to Masons at random, with no lodge roster involved. It appears, therefore, that no specific violation of THE CODE has occurred. I would like to point out, however, that such activity by a member of the Craft is not looked upon with favor, as it may easily be interpreted as putting Masonry into politics.

"I trust that you will be very careful in the future to do nothing that might damage the good image of Masonry."

OFFICIAL OPINIONSOpinion No. 1

The Master of Johnston-Caswell Lodge No. 10 asked for a ruling on whether or not a candidate should be required to remove his false teeth before initiation. A Past Master of the lodge had insisted that the dentures should be removed, and the Master did not oppose this request, although they appeared to be made entirely of plastic.

I gave as my opinion the fact that the wearing of dentures during initiation is not contrary to the spirit and letter of our Masonic law. Otherwise, it would be necessary for a candidate to have removed the gold or other metal filling in his teeth, or a cap on a tooth, before taking the degrees. Also, partial dentures sometimes have aluminum or other metal substance to connect the parts, and there is nothing offensive or defensive about them.

It was my opinion that such action as removing dentures was never intended, and I so ruled.

Opinion No. 2

A lodge in North Carolina received a petition for the degrees from a Moslem, and I was asked for a ruling as to whether a Moslem can be elected to receive the degrees, and if elected, can the Koran be used on the Altar of a subordinate lodge in our Grand Jurisdiction to obligate a Moslem?

RULING: Masonry is universal. Masonry is not restricted to any sect or religion. It welcomes good men of all faiths and requires only that they believe in the Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man. At least twice in the ritual of the degrees appears the phrase, "the Universality of Masonry." In the manual we are told: "By the exercise of brotherly love we are taught to regard the whole human species, the high and the low, the rich and the poor, as one family; who, as created by one Almighty parent, and inhabitants of the same planet, are to aid, support, and protect each other. On this principle Masonry unites men of every country, sect, and opinion, and conciliates true friendship among those who otherwise might have remained at a perpetual distance."

Section 6-01 (6) of THE CODE reads as follows: "That the Sacred Book of the Divine Law, chief among the Three Great Lights of Masonry, is indispensably present in the lodges while at work."

The Bible as defined by Mackey's Encyclopedia of Freemasonry states, "BIBLE. The Bible is properly called a greater light of Masonry, for from the center of the lodge it pours forth upon the East, the West, and the South its refulgent rays of Divine truth. The Bible is used among Masons as a symbol of the Will of God, however it may be expressed. Therefore, whatever to any people expresses that Will may be used as a substitute for the Bible in a Masonic lodge. Thus, in a lodge consisting entirely of Jews, the Old Testament alone may be placed upon the Altar, and Turkish Masons make use of the Koran. Whether it be the Gospels to the Christian, the Pentateuch to the Israelite, the Koran to the Mussulman, or the Veda to the Brahman, it everywhere Masonically conveys the same idea—that of the symbolism of the Divine Will revealed to man."

The Koran is described by Mackey as follows: "KORAN. The sacred book of the Mohammedans, and believed by them to contain a record of the revelations made by God to Mohammed, and afterward dictated by him to an amanuensis, since the prophet could neither read nor write. In a lodge consisting wholly of Mohammedans, the Koran would be esteemed as the Book of the Law, and take the place on the Altar which is occupied in Christian lodges by the Bible. It would thus become the symbol to them of the Tracing-Board of the Divine Architect. But, unlike the Old and New Testaments, the Koran has no connection with, and gives no support to, any of the Masonic legends or symbols, except in those parts which were plagiarized by the prophet from the Jewish and Christian Scriptures."

To the Moslem Allah is God, and the Koran is the Bible, his book of light and faith.

Webster's New International Dictionary defines the Bible in Item 4 as follows: "A book containing the sacred writings of any religion, as the Mohammedan Bible, that is, the Koran."

The Book of Faith which is the symbolism of the Divine Will revealed to man, should be upon the Altar when that petitioner takes the obligation, whatever that Book of Faith may be, if the petitioner believes in the Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man. It would be as meaningless for a Moslem to take an obligation upon the Christian or Hebrew Bible as it would for the Christian or Hebrew to take his obligation upon the Koran.

It is meaningful for the Moslem to take his obligation upon the Koran which is his Book of Faith. Therefore, the Koran can be used on the Altar when the brother in question who is a Moslem takes the obligation, and it is proper for him to be obligated upon the Koran which is his Book of Faith.

ORDERS

The following Orders were issued during the year for violations of specific regulations in THE CODE:

Order No. 1

I have reviewed the file in the matter of Mark Terrance Goodman, who received the Entered Apprentice Degree on August 11, 1969 after having been elected to receive the degrees in Liberty Lodge No. 45 on August 7, 1969, all of which took place before the petition was recorded and certified in the Grand Secretary's office.

This petition was read at a stated communication on July 3, 1969 but was not forwarded to the Grand Secretary's office for certification until August 18, 1969, after the petitioner had already been elected and initiated.

Since Brother Goodman is not responsible for this irregularity and he has received the Entered Apprentice Degree in due form, he is not at fault, nor can the degree be taken from him.

It is therefore Ordered that this petition be certified by the Grand Secretary as of this date with a proper notation on the Certificate to explain the delay in certification. Also, that the status of this brother is in all respects that of an Entered Apprentice in Liberty Lodge No. 45, without the necessity of healing him.

This Order must be read at the first stated communication of Liberty Lodge No. 45 after its receipt, entered on the minutes of that communication, and a proper notation made on the margin of the minutes of August 7 and 11, 1969, referring to this Order and the date it was recorded in the minutes.

Given under my hand and seal at Smithfield, North Carolina this 25th day of August, 1969.

Order No. 2

I have reviewed the file in the matter of Frank Harding Laws, who received the Entered Apprentice Degree on July 15, 1969 after having been elected to receive the degrees in Adoniram Lodge No. 149 on July 1, 1969, all of which took place before the petition was recorded and certified in the Grand Secretary's office.

This petition was read at a stated communication on June 3, 1969 but was not forwarded to the Grand Secretary's office for certification until October 6, 1969, after the petitioner had already been elected and initiated.

Since Brother Laws is not responsible for this irregularity and has received the Entered Apprentice Degree in due form, he is not at fault, nor can the degree be taken from him.

It is therefore Ordered that this petition be certified by the Grand Secretary as of this date with a proper notation on the Certificate to explain the delay in certification. Also, that the status of this brother is in all respects that of an Entered Apprentice in Adoniram Lodge No. 149, without the necessity of healing him.

This Order must be read at the first stated communication of Adoniram Lodge No. 149 after its receipt, entered on the minutes of that communication, and a proper notation made on the margin of the minutes of July 1 and 15, 1969, referring to this Order and the date it was recorded in the minutes.

Order No. 3

It has been brought to my attention by the Grand Secretary that Brother Cook who has applied for affiliation with your lodge from Hiram Lodge No. 98 was elected to membership in your lodge on December 15, 1969, without an Application for Affiliation form having been completed and certified by the office of the Grand Secretary.

In view of the above, the ballot taken on Brother Cook by your lodge on December 15, 1969 is hereby declared illegal and void under Regulations 76-01; 76-01 (1); and 83-15 of THE CODE.

Since the Grand Master is authorized to order another ballot, a dispensation is hereby granted to Buffalo Lodge No. 172, to ballot again on the Application for Affiliation of Brother Cook at its stated communication of February 16, 1970.

The records of the Grand Secretary and those of your lodge shall be made to conform to this opinion and the result of the reballot.

Order No. 4

In reply to a letter dated June 19, 1969 from a committee representing Eureka Lodge No. 317, which had reference to the territorial jurisdiction lines between New Lebanon Lodge No. 314 and Eureka Lodge No. 317, which were established by Order No. 5, dated April 11, 1969, by the then Grand Master, I was of the following opinion:

Regulation 48-09 of THE CODE specifies that the Grand Lodge alone can establish territorial jurisdiction lines. Regulation 48-13 specifies and directs the way and manner in which territorial jurisdiction lines shall be changed. From the information before me, it appears that neither of the aforesaid-mentioned regulations were complied with; therefore, it was my opinion that Order No. 5 dated April 11, 1969 was in conflict with THE CODE and, therefore, would be null and void.

It was therefore Ordered: That the territorial jurisdiction lines between New Lebanon Lodge No. 314 and Eureka Lodge No. 317 shall revert to their original locations as if no Order had ever been issued, and all questions involving jurisdiction of petitioners shall be determined as prescribed and directed in Regulation 48-02 of THE CODE.

It was further Ordered, that this Order shall be read at the first stated communication following its receipt by New Lebanon Lodge No. 314 and Eureka Lodge No. 317 and entered on and made a part of the minutes of that stated communication of each lodge.

Order No. 4A

I have before me the file in regard to New Lebanon Lodge No. 314 receiving the Petition for the Degrees of Robert Perry Cooke and Glenn David Greenway. Both of these petitioners were elected to receive the degrees in your lodge on March 7, 1969, and were subsequently initiated.

It has been brought to my attention that both petitioners lived within the territorial jurisdiction of Eureka Lodge No. 317 at the time each was initiated. Regulation 48-16 states that when a lodge invades the jurisdiction of another lodge it shall forfeit and pay to the lodge whose jurisdiction it has invaded, the entire fee which the injured lodge has established for the degrees.

It Is Therefore ORDERED: That under the provisions of Regulation 48-16 of THE CODE the above-named candidates shall be the material of New Lebanon Lodge No. 314 and it may complete the work on them; however, New Lebanon Lodge No. 314 shall pay to Eureka Lodge No. 317 the sum of $100.00 for each of the two petitioners. A copy of the letter forwarding the payment of the fees shall be sent to me.

It Is Further ORDERED: That New Lebanon Lodge No. 314 shall pay to the Grand Lodge the same tax and fees as it does on other candidates advanced by it as provided in Regulation 48-16.

I find it necessary to reprimand New Lebanon Lodge No. 314 for this flagrant violation of THE CODE and admonish them to desist from any further invasion of territorial jurisdiction.

This Order shall be read at the first stated communication following its receipt by New Lebanon Lodge No. 314 and entered on and made a part of the minutes of that stated communication.

Given under my hand and seal at Smithfield, North Carolina, this fourth day of September, 1969.

Order No. 5

It was called to my attention by the Grand Secretary that Blue Ridge Lodge No. 435 elected Brother Charles B. Henriques to membership on June 6, 1969 without having received an Application for Affiliation from him, and without an application having been duly certified by the office of the Grand Secretary.

It was my opinion that the ballot having been taken before the application was received by Blue Ridge Lodge No. 435 and certified by the Grand Secretary, it was illegal and void under the clear and positive language of Regulations 76-01, 76-01(1), and 83-15, and since the Grand Master is authorized to order another ballot, a dispensation was granted to Blue Ridge Lodge No. 435 to receive Brother Henriques' Application for Affiliation at the stated communication to be held on July 4, 1969, and to ballot on the said application at the stated communication to be held on August 1, 1969, after the application had been properly certified by the office of Grand Secretary.

It was, therefore, Ordered that the records in the office of the Grand Secretary and of Blue Ridge Lodge No. 435 be made to conform to this Order and the result of the rebalot. If the applicant is rejected, his membership shall be the same as it was before Blue Ridge Lodge No. 435 took any action thereon.

Order No. 6

I have before me the file in the matter of the ILLEGAL election of Mr. Edgar B. Cranford by Mooresville Lodge No. 496 on June 24, 1969 before the petition was certified by the Grand Secretary.

The facts presented show that the petition was read on May 27, 1969 and that he was elected to receive the degrees on June 24, 1969 without the petition having been certified. This ballot was, therefore, ILLEGAL.

The petition was returned uncertified by your office on June 4, 1969 with the request that the Secretary secure the signature of the petitioner, it having been received with no explanation of the fact that this man had no middle name; only the initial "B". It was not returned to your office until July 10th.

In order to fully comply with Regulations 73-13 and 76-01 of THE CODE, it is hereby ORDERED that the Grand Secretary make the necessary record of the subject petition and place thereon his Certificate, with a proper notation thereon to explain the delay in making it. Upon receipt of the property certified petition, it shall be submitted to the secret ballot at the stated communication of Mooresville Lodge No. 496 to be held on August 12, 1969 in the same manner as if no previous ballot had been taken thereon.

This Order shall be read to the lodge at the first stated communication after its receipt, entered on the minutes of that communication, and a proper notation made on the margin of the minutes of the stated communication at which the ballot was taken on June 24, 1969, referring to this Order and the date it was recorded in the minutes.

Given under my hand and seal at Smithfield, North Carolina this 29th day of July, A.D. 1969; A.L. 5969.

Order No. 7

Letters were received from Crown Point Lodge No. 708 bearing dates of June 13, 1969 and June 16, 1969, signed by the Master and the Secretary, stating that during the balloting on the petition for the degree of Mr. P.R.C. at a stated communication on June 12, 1969, the Acting Junior Deacon left the lodge room without the permission of the Master.

Regulation 76-20 of THE CODE provides that "When a ballot has begun it shall not be suspended or postponed, nor shall it be interrupted by the admission or withdrawal of any brother, except the Tyler, to vote" I therefore declared the ballot taken on the petition of Mr. P.R.C. on June 12, 1969, which resulted in his rejection, NULL and VOID.

Regulation 76-16 of THE CODE authorizes the Grand Master to Order another ballot in cases of this kind, and I ordered this rebalot to be taken on July 24, 1969 after the lodge had complied with the provisions of Regulation 78-01 which requires that all members of the lodge be given at least ten days notice by first class mail under sealed cover of the rebalot and the time and place therefore.

Order No. 8

I have reviewed the file in the matter of Mr. G.E.Y. who was rejected to receive the degrees in Masonry in J. J. Crowder Lodge No. 743 before the petition was certified by the Grand Secretary.

According to facts presented, the petition was read at a stated communication held on November 20, 1969 and the petitioner was rejected on December 18, 1969, without the petition having been certified by the Grand Secretary. This ballot was, therefore, ILLEGAL.

In order to fully comply with Regulation 76-01, it is ORDERED that the Grand Secretary make the necessary record of the subject petition and place thereon his Certificate, with a proper notation on his Certificate to explain the delay in making it. Upon receipt of the properly certified petition, it shall be submitted to secret ballot at the stated communication of J. J. Crowder Lodge No. 743 to be held on February 19, 1970 in the same manner as if no previous ballot had been taken thereon.

This Order shall be read to the lodge at the stated communication on February 19, 1970, entered on the minutes of that communication and a proper notation made on the margin of the minutes of J. J. Crowder Lodge No. 743 for the stated communication at which the illegal ballot was taken (December 18, 1969) referring to this Order and the date it was recorded in the Minutes.

Order No. 9

I have reviewed the file in the matter of Thomas Collins Sullivan who was elected to receive the Degrees in Masonry in J. J. Crowder Lodge No. 743 before the petition was certified by the Grand Secretary.

According to the facts presented, the petition was read at a stated communication held on November 20, 1969 and the petitioner was elected on December 18, 1969, without the petition having been certified by the Grand Secretary. This ballot was, therefore, ILLEGAL.

In order to fully comply with Regulations 73-13 and 76-01, it is ORDERED that the Grand Secretary make the necessary record of the subject petition and the place thereon his Certificate, with a proper notation on his Certificate to explain the delay in making it. Upon receipt of the properly certified petition, it shall be submitted to the secret ballot at the stated communication of J. J. Crowder Lodge No. 743 to be held on January 15, 1970 in the same manner as if no previous ballot had been taken thereon.

This order shall be read to the lodge at the first stated communication after its receipt, entered on the minutes of that communication, and a proper notation made on the margin of the minutes of J. J. Crowder Lodge No. 743 for the stated communication at which the illegal ballot was taken (December 18, 1969) referring to this Order and the date it was recorded in the Minutes.

CONFERENCE OF GRAND MASTERS OF MASONS IN NORTH AMERICA

Membership in this Conference is composed of the Grand Masters of all of the Grand Lodges in North America, with visitors present each year from most of the same Grand Lodges as well as others scattered across the globe. This conference is designed primarily for the purpose of exchanging ideas, and provides possibly the finest means of communication available between the many Grand Jurisdictions. It was my pleasure to attend this Conference in Washington, D. C. for the fifth consecutive year, and to have with me a fine representation from our Grand Lodge, consisting of Brothers Maurice E. Walsh, William W. Mims, Jr., Berl M. Kahn, James W. Brewer, Charles A. Harris, James G. Johnston, William J. Bundy, Robert N. Bass, Jr., Alfred A. Kafer, Jr., Sam A. Hennis, Jr., W. Edward Burrier, Harvey W. Smith, Robert L. Pugh, R. Pete Dudley and Herbert B. Ruffin. Brother Hennis has served for several years on the Commission on Information for Recognition, a part of this Annual Conference, and your representatives were happy to learn that he was elected Chairman of this Commission for the coming year. Your Grand Master was elected Chairman of the Conference and presided over its meetings, as well as the Grand Masters' Banquet which was attended by several hundred Masons, their wives, and guests. This was a signal honor for the Grand Lodge of North Carolina, and I was happy to have the privilege of representing you in this capacity. We were glad to have many of our wives with us, and to have Senators Ervin and Jordan, most of our Congressmen, and their wives to join us for the Grand Masters' Banquet. I want to close this portion of my report by expressing sincere appreciation to Most Worshipful Brother Samuel W. McIntosh, Past Grand Master of the District of Columbia and Executive Secretary of the Conference, for his expert guidance and counsel. He has served this Conference well for many years.

THE GEORGE WASHINGTON MASONIC NATIONAL MEMORIAL ASSOCIATION & THE MASONIC SERVICE ASSOCIATION OF THE UNITED STATES

The meetings of both of these Associations were attended by the North Carolina delegation present in the city of Washington for the various activities of "George Washington Week". A complete report of both meetings will be given by Brother Robert L. Pugh who has so ably served as our representative to both Associations for many years.

SOUTHEASTERN MASONIC CONFERENCE

It was my privilege to attend this Conference in Mobile, Alabama last August, along with Brothers Maurice E. Walsh, William W. Mims, Jr., Berl M. Kahn, and Robert L. Pugh. We were very happy that Brother Pugh was selected to serve as Chaplain of the Conference. Several of the papers presented were excellent, and the interest in this program by those present was demonstrated by the lively discussion following each paper. Everyone attending this Conference returned home with the feeling that it had been most profitable.

GRAND LODGE OFFICE

I find it most difficult to adequately express my thanks and deep appreciation to Brother Charles A. Harris, Grand Secretary; Brother R. Pete Dudley, his assistant, and the other members of the staff for the excellent manner in which they are running our Grand Lodge office, and for all they have meant to me during my year as Grand Master. I do not hesitate to say that without their wise counsel and their unselfish service to me throughout the year, I simply could not have done what was expected of me. This job has been so much easier and more enjoyable because of them. Brothers Harris and Dudley have been with me throughout the year at District Meetings, Cornerstone Layings, Dedications, Constitutions, Institutions, and at other occasions when their presence was needed. I am sure you will agree with me that we owe a debt of gratitude to these fine Masons and fine young Ladies for the outstanding and dedicated service they are rendering to the Masons in North Carolina.

RECOMMENDATIONS

I recommend that we continue our usual appropriations to Oxford Orphanage and the Masonic and Eastern Star Home, Charity, the Masonic Service Association, the Masonic Relief Association, the George Washington Masonic National Memorial Association, the Grand Masters' and Grand Secretaries' Conferences, the Southeastern Masonic Conference, the Order of DeMolay and the Order of Rainbow for Girls.

I recommend that the Committee on Masonic Jurisprudence rewrite the proposed amendments at Regulation 51-01 (1) [3 and 3A] of The Code, eliminating any reference to "District Meetings" and substituting in lieu thereof "Any official visit of the Grand Master for its own district." And I further recommend that this proposed change be adopted by the Grand Lodge.

I recommend that a special committee be appointed by the incoming Grand Master to investigate and report back at the next Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge its recommendation as to providing financial assistance to subordinate lodges in this Grand Jurisdiction who have suffered losses to their property by fire or other causes beyond their control.

I recommend that the Committee on Masonic Jurisprudence be authorized to appoint a committee to rewrite The Code in its entirety for submission to the Code Commission for its approval and subsequent submission to the Grand Lodge for its approval and adoption.

I recommend that the Committee on Masonic Jurisprudence prepare and submit to this Grand Lodge for its consideration the necessary amendments to The Code to provide for changing the title of the Assistant to the Grand Secretary to Assistant Grand Secretary, and that said Assistant Grand Secretary shall be an officer of the Grand Lodge.

I recommend the adoption of the proposed amendment to The Code to provide for a permanent Grand Lodge Committee on Masonic Education. I wholeheartedly support the proposed program on Masonic Education and ask the Grand Lodge to endorse this program as a matter of policy.

At the Grand Masters' Conference in Washington in February of this year, attention was called to the 200th Anniversary Celebration of the founding of the United States in 1976. It was suggested that each Grand Lodge contribute one cent (.01) per member for one year to defray the cost of Masonry's participation in this celebration on a national level. I recommend that our Grand Lodge make such an appropriation, based on the membership as of December 31, 1969, and forward this amount to the Masonic Service Association, who will act as a clearing house and will handle the details for this 200th Anniversary Celebration.

Should our own Grand Lodge decide to hold a celebration of its own, I recommend that sufficient funds be appropriated over the next several years to cover the cost of this celebration.

APPRECIATION

I want to express my deep and sincere appreciation to the many Masons and friends who have been so good to me, and who have been of so much help to me in my efforts to make this a good year for Masonry in North Carolina:

To Brothers Maurice E. Walsh, William W. Mims, Jr., and Berl M. Kahn for their exceptional support throughout the year. We have worked closely together for several years, and I'm sure no Grand Master has ever had the support from the three elective Line Officers behind him as these have given me; And to the other Grand Lodge Officers, the Past Grand Masters, the District Deputy Grand Masters, the District Deputy Grand Lecturers, the members of the many Boards and Committees, and the numerous other Masons who have given me such fine support and extended to me so many courtesies.

To Brother James W. Brewer, again, for appointing me in the Grand Lodge Line and thereby giving me the opportunity to serve as your Grand Master.

To Brothers Harris and Dudley, Gray and Robbins, and the many others who have gone far beyond the call of duty in their service to me and to the Grand Lodge; including Brothers William J. Bundy, Robert L. Pugh, James G. Johnston, W. Edward Burrier, Sam A. Hennis, Jr., and the many others whose friendship and support have meant so much to me.

To the members of my Lodge, Fellowship Lodge No. 84, the Masons in the 27th Masonic District, and the members of the Smithfield Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star for their support and many kindnesses to me.

To Brother Claibourne Lawson and his committees for the many hours they have spent in making the necessary arrangements for us to hold this Annual Communication in Durham.

To those Masons, Lodges, Districts and other Masonic related organizations for the gifts and honors bestowed upon me during the year. This demonstrates to me the high esteem in which the office of Grand Master is held. To those who extended these tokens of friendship and brotherly love, I express my sincere thanks.

And finally, to my wife, Nell, without whose support and encouragement I could not have made it through this, the busiest year of my life.

CONCLUSION

The Grand Lodge of North Carolina doesn't take a back seat to any Grand Lodge, in this country or elsewhere. This is because of you Masons who through the years have taken an active interest in your Blue Lodges, to those who have made your talents available to the Grand Lodge and to those farsighted leaders of the past who laid such a solid foundation on which those of us in this generation could build.

I look forward with optimism to the future of our great institution. With the fine and dedicated Masons destined to lead us as officers in the years ahead; the outstanding group of Past Grand Masters who always stand ready and willing to offer their services and wise counsel; and with so many loyal and devoted Blue Lodge Masons throughout the state, I know that this Grand Lodge will continue to move forward for many years to come.

This has been a most rewarding year for me, and I am grateful to you for having given me the privilege of serving as your Grand Master. My sincere thanks for your friendship and for all you have done in my behalf this past year. To my successor, and to all the Grand Lodge Officers, I extend to you my sincere best wishes for a successful future in administering the affairs of our Grand Lodge, and I pledge to you my wholehearted support in your endeavors.

Respectfully submitted,

William A. Hooks
Grand Master

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON NECROLOGY

(Docket No. 35)

The following report of the Committee on Necrology was delivered by W. Brother Ben F. Grimes, Past Master, and entered on the record:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

Once more we pause, on this auspicious occasion, to honor 1236 deceased brother Masons who have been redeemed from this life and its labors during the past year. During these solemn moments, each of us has reason to remember the personal friendships with many of these departed brethren and the grief and sadness their demise has left.

The Supreme Architect in his omnipotent wisdom has prepared another home for all good and faithful servants, and nothing will ever be more precious, when our course is run and we have crossed the bar, than the welcome words: "Well done good and faithful servant, enter thou into the joy of thy Lord".

"So teach us to number our days that we may attain unto wisdom". Ages have come and gone, civilizations have vanished, and philosophies have decayed: but the ancient psalm still sings. It begins in GOD, who is the home of the soul, descends into the valley of the shadow of mortality, where the flood of years sweeps the generations away, and then climbs up to the hills where shines the beauty that never fades. And having begun in GOD, it returns to Him at last, who is from everlasting to everlasting, and in whose eternal life man has a share by virtue of his passion for righteousness, his quest of truth, and his love of the beauty of holiness.

Man lives in GOD, whose life knows no end and with whom a thousand years are as a day. We have been armored against the erosion of time and the invasion of death. "The power for good given us in this world will be continued beyond it".

Life nobly lived, on high tasks intent, obedient to the moral law, following the way of the spirit, passes out of the tyranny of time into an eternal fellowship in which there is security and peace. So interpreted, our mortal life, with all its discipline of frailty and tragedy, is a school which, if we number our days aright, we learn wisdom: that is immortal—the discovery of our citizenship in a city that hath foundations whose maker and builder is GOD. Such wisdom cannot be taught; it is learned only by living for things that time cannot mar nor death make valueless.

We can best honor our deceased brethren by exemplifying and emulating all of the noble principles of Freemasonry. Our world today is in such dire need of men who can and will lead lives which are based on true brotherly love.

The void and emptiness that each of our brethren left with his family and loved ones can never be filled, but surely the cup will runneth over and the remaining influence for good will live forever with each family when it proudly proclaims that the deceased loved one was a Mason. Never did his family worry when he was "at the Lodge Meeting". And there must have been warm understanding when he had gone to visit the Orphanage or perhaps, the Masonic and Eastern Star Home. The prayers and well wishes of many orphans and widows will remain forever as a living memorial for each of these, our departed brethren.

There was occasion in recent months to try and console one of our recently departed brethren who saw the shadows of death approaching. His resulting testimony was simple and most beautiful in its utterance: "I know that my days here on earth are about ended and I know nothing better than to kneel on my knees each night and pray for forgiveness if I have wronged any of my fellow men and offer thanks to God. Freemasonry has helped to do more good than any other thing in my life. I hope that you boys will keep it up and pass it on."

Surely this influence is continuing in the lives of his friends and loved ones. You and I, my brethren, can help to insure such noble thoughts of a dear one departed.

Our sincere and most affectionate sympathy go out to relatives and loved ones of these brethren, and we would remind them that no matter how dark the night, morning always comes. Our consoling thought is one of thankfulness for each of their lives. Their many virtues and loveable qualities should inspire us to emulate more noble lives.

May their souls rest in peace, for they have surely heard the welcomed invitation: "Come ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world."

And finally, my brethren, let us listen to the beautiful lines of the poem by Whittier:

"I long for household voices gone,
For vanished smiles I long,
But God hath led my dear ones on,
And He can do no wrong.
I know not what the future hath
Of marvel or surprise,
Assured alone that life and death
His mercy underlies.
I know not where His islands lift
Their fronded palms in air;
I only know I cannot drift
Beyond His love and care."

I now place this rose upon the Altar of Freemasonry in remembrance of our departed friends.

MEMORIAL PRAYER

(By W. .Richard D. Shinkle, Grand Chaplain)

Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, stand with us this morning as we bow in our hearts and in our minds, because there has come a time to us when we miss those who have been with us for so long upon this earth. These who have preceded us in death have left us here in this Earthly Lodge to go to that Celestial Lodge above. We pray, Heavenly Father, that they may have perfect peace there and be with you. Be with the widows, the children and the loved ones of these departed brethren. Walk with them through the valley of the shadows. Give them comfort that they too might look forward to that journey across that river to that house not made by hand eternal in the Heavens and be with you. May their joy be complete. These who have fallen, our deceased brethren, have meant much to us, many of us. As their paths crossed ours, joy has been ours. They have helped us, they have inspired us and, oh God, may we be worthy of the friendship we have had with them, the brotherly love we have tried to exhibit before them. May we truly cherish that friendship and may we walk forward from this lodge room serving Masonry throughout the world, letting them know that there is a Grand Architect of the Universe, that we too might be reunited with them and with thee. We make this prayer in the name of the most holy one from the shores of Galilee, for it is in his name that we pray. Amen

ADDRESS OF THE GRAND ORATOR

(Docket No. 36)

The Grand Master recognized and presented M. W. Broder William J. Bundy, P. G. M., Grand Orator of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina, who delivered the following oration:

Most Worshipful Grand Master, Grand Lodge Officers, Distinguished Guests, and Brethren:

I am deeply indebted to you, Most Worshipful Sir, for the appointment as Grand Orator. I am by no means grand, and I am not an orator, but I do love the sound of the title. It is euphony to mine ears. As every lawyer loves to speak, it is said, and I plead guilty to being one of them. of which I am greatly proud, and being aware in some part of what I conceive to be the spirit and meaning of Masonry, I am candid and honest enough to say that I have always wanted to be Grand Orator for one time, and this is my time. I have heard every one of them since 1934 except one, and each of them has excited in my mind a wanting to stand here, as I now stand, and attempt to speak what I conceive to be what Masonry and Masons are about, or ought to be about. Then, though, when the opportunity became mine, I came to fear it, and I've never been a man to be afraid. When I stopped to realize the awesome responsibility of saying to you brethren something to justify your time in listening. I came to the conclusion that this assignment is too big for a country judge like me.

When I look around me on this rostrum, and out there at you Masons on the floor, I ask myself, "Who are you to try to sell this crowd anything?" Brethren, I'm a simple man, and this is going to be a simple speech, perhaps even corny to some of my more erudite and intellectual brethren, but I'm an old fashioned man, and old fashioned American and an old fashioned Mason, and I'm proud of it, and I propose, with your kind indulgence, to try to talk to you briefly, on an old fashioned subject.

Of a certainty, I would not be presumptuous enough to attempt or try to tell you anything new. I possess not the erudition, nor if had it the wish to tell you something you do not already know. You would call me a fool, and a fool I would be. Rather, would I prefer to try to call us back to the fundamentals, which in the hustle and bustle of this world we sometimes forget. In Section 29 of the Constitution of our great State of North Carolina are found these words which should be engraven in the minds and hearts of every North Carolinian and every American:

"A frequent recurrence to fundamental principles is absolutely necessary to preserve the blessings of liberty."

Let us change the last word to Masonry. We forget, we get away from the fundamentals, leave the main road, go off on side roads and detours. In this day of the liberals and the intelligentsia, it is not considered the thing to do, to speak of and stand by, and stand up for the old fashioned, fundamental things which have brought us where we are, and made this nation great, the greatest, despite its many weaknesses, upon which God's sun ever shone. I propose to speak of some of these old fundamentals, lest we forget, the fundamentals of this "ancient and honorable fraternity, ancient as having existed from time immemorial, and honorable as tending in every particular so to render all men who will be conformable to its precepts." So, let us look once again to its precepts, which are spread through the ritual of the three degrees. Whether you are interested in helping in the Degree Work or not, read the written part of the ritual of the degrees, time and again, and listen to the unwritten part in the degrees, and you will be lifted up, enriched in soul and heart, and improved in mind.

On Page 17 of Bahnson's Manual are these words, which you will recall:

"Freemasonry, a beautiful system of morality, veiled in allegory, and illustrated by symbols. The most ancient society in the world; its principles are based on pure morality, its ethics are the ethics of pure religion; its doctrines the doctrines of brotherly love; and its sentiments the sentiments of exalted benevolence. It encourages all that is good, kind and charitable; and reproofs all that is vicious, cruel and oppressive." These are not words just to read from a book, but are what Masonry is and is about, for which reason I recall your attention to them. Say it over and over again, and hearken to the beauty and the meaning of the words. This is fundamental.

The most fundamental thing about Masonry is the Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man. A man cannot take even the First Degree until he professes a belief in Deity. In this so-called forward looking day, many men are getting away from God, or getting too big for him, or feeling that He is out of date, or even that He is dead. If you are one of these, and God forbid, you ought to dimitt now. Masonry has no room for an atheist or an agnostic. Who can look upon the glorious works of creation and feel any doubt? The first words of the Bible, that rule and guide to our faith, are: "In the beginning, God created the heavens and the earth, and the earth was without form and void, and darkness was upon the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters. And God said, 'Let there be light.' And there was light." And in His own order he created the sun, moon and stars, man and woman. And who can look into the heavens, at "that inverted bowl called the sky," where the moon and the stars are hung in the right places, and not clashing together, and say, "There is no God." Indeed, "The heavens declare the glory of God: and the firmament sheweth His handiwork."

There is a popular song that expresses my thought of the sure knowledge of God; I am sure that you have heard it many times. Frankie Lane sings it beautifully:

"I believe for every drop of rain that falls
A flower grows.
I believe that somewhere in the darkest night
A candle glows.
I believe for everyone who goes astray
Someone will come to show the way.
I believe, I believe.
I believe above the storm
The smallest prayer will still be heard.
I believe that Someone in the great Somewhere
Hears every word.
Every time I hear a new born baby cry,
Or touch a leaf or see the sky,
Then I know why I believe."

I am not trying to convince you of God; I am recalling you, and me, to a great, the greatest fundamental, the one great God, who works in the affairs of men, and is the Father of all men.

With the Fatherhood of God goes the Brotherhood of Man; they are inseparable, for without one there is not the other. If our fraternity does not teach men to be brothers, what does it teach? "Behold, how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity." The Brotherhood of Man means brotherly love between man and man; this is one of the tenets of a Mason's profession:

"By the exercise of brotherly love we are taught to regard the whole human species—the high and the low, the rich and the poor—as one family; who, as created by one Almighty Parent, and inhabitants of the same planet, are to aid, support and protect each other. On this principle Masonry unites men of every country, sect and opinion, and conciliates true friendship among those who otherwise might have remained at a perpetual distance." By our daily lives we show, or do not show, love for our brother, and love for our Heavenly Father. If he is not my Father, then man is not my brother, and man is my brother, else religion and Masonry are founded on false bottoms. But, praise God, Masonry is founded on the rock bottom of truth, else men would be animals striving for a competitive existence, where the strong only survive, and the weak are devoured. But, man is created in the image of God; therefore, he must of necessity possess some of the attributes of God, the chief among which is love.

We teach Masonry largely by symbols, and we are told in the ritual that "a lodge is a symbol of the world". Then each man who sits with me in the lodge is a symbol of all other men in the world; and I am not only to love the brother who sits with me in the lodge, but all men. With the poet, I believe that:

"There's a destiny that makes men brothers;
None goes his way alone.
All that we send into the lives of others
Comes back into our own.
I care not what his temples nor his creeds,
But this thing holds firm and fast,
That into the heap of his days and deeds
The soul of a man is cast."

What did He whom Christians call the Master say when he was asked what is the greatest commandment:

"Love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, with all thy soul, with all thy might." And second unto this, said He: "Thou shall love thy neighbor as thyself," for a great example of which I call you back to the Parable of the Prodigal Son. Think of the times you "have gone out of your way to assist and serve a worthy brother." Then you made Masonry a real and breathing thing, and not mere abstract philosophy. Think of the many times someone has done likewise for you. Of such is the brotherhood of man.

This can be no better said than as was said by Brother Leigh Hunt in his immortal poem Abou Ben Adhem, which a number of you have heard me quote at times before, and I quote it again here, with no apology, for I consider it one of the greatest poem's ever penned by a Mason:

"Abou Ben Adhem, may his tribe increase,
Awoke one night from a deep dream of peace,
And saw, within the moonlight of his room,
Making it rich, and like a lily in bloom,
An angel writing in a Book of Gold:
Exceeding peace had made Ben Adhem bold,

And to the presence in the room he said,
 "What writiest thou?" The Vision raised its head
 And with a look made of all sweet accord,
 Answered, 'The names of those who love the Lord'.
 'And is mine one' asked Abou. 'Nay, not so',
 Replied the angel. Abou spoke more low
 But cheerily still; and said, 'I pray, thee, then,
 Write me as one who loves his fellowmen.'
 The angel wrote and vanished. The next night
 It came with a great wakening light,
 And showed the names of those whom the love of God had blessed,
 And, lo, Ben Adhem's name led all the rest."

I quote from the Ritual of Initiation of the Elks:

"As we therefore have opportunity, let us do good unto all men, for we pass this way but once. We cannot retrace our steps, nor call back the days that are gone; but the passing moment is ours long enough to grasp the hand in friendship, to lighten each other's burdens, to bring rest to the weary, and to comfort those who mourn—this is brotherly love."

Another fundamental to which I call your attention, particularly you of the Christian faith, is that Masonry is not limited to those of that faith, but is open to and welcomes the Jew, the Mohammedan, the Buddhist, those of any country, sect or opinion who believe in the Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man. There are good men of all faiths, and Masonry is intended for men of good will everywhere who believe in Deity. I recall to you the First Degree where it says:

"The form of a lodge is an oblong, extending from East to West, between North and South, from its surface to its center, and from earth to heaven; and is (symbolically said to be) of such vast dimensions, to denote the universality of Masonry, and that our charity (synonymous with) love, should be equally extensive. A Masonic Lodge is a symbol of the world."

In thinking of the fundamentals, let us think of the Bible upon our altar. It is upon the altar of every lodge, the Book of Law, the rule and guide of our faith. It is opened simultaneously and concurrently with the opening of a lodge, and closes in like manner. REG. 6-01 (6) of THE CODE reads as follows: "That the Sacred Book of the Divine Law, chief among the Three Great Light of Masonry, is indispensably present in the lodges while at work." In his Encyclopedia of Freemasonry Mackey states: "The Bible is properly called a greater light of Masonry, for from the center of the lodge it pours forth upon the East, the West, and the South it refulgent rays of Divine truth. The Bible is used among Masons as a symbol of the Will of God, however it may be expressed. Therefore, whatever to any people expresses that Will may be used as a substitute for the Bible in a Masonic lodge. Thus, in a lodge consisting entirely of Jews, the Old Testament alone may be placed upon the altar, and Turkish Masons may use the Koran. Whether it be the Gospels to the Christian, the Pentateuch to the Israelite, the Koran to the Mussulman, The Veda to the Brahmin, it everywhere Masonically conveys the same idea—that of the symbolism of the Divine Will revealed to man." From the Bible we learn, if we but read, our duty to God, our neighbor and ourselves.

At the Southeastern Masonic Conference in Atlanta in August 1968, Past Grand Master Robert L. Pugh presented a masterful and comprehensive study of "The Holy Book Upon Our Altar," which I earnestly recommend to your careful perusal and study. There Brother Pugh comments, and I comment here, on the sad fact, that perhaps it lies too much upon our altar in lodge, too much on a desk or table at home, and too much on a desk or a shelf at the office. It is still the best seller in the world, the best Book in the world, the most helpful, the most needed Book in the world, the Book of our Faith.

In the installation ceremony, the Chaplain being installed is told to "teach us from its life giving precepts." What a Book, what great treasures of prose and poetry it contains; there is no book like unto it. Read in it of the building of the Temple of Solomon. In 1954, I stood upon the very ground upon which this great Temple was erected, and it seemed to me that I could see the three Grand Masters there, with the 80,000 Fellowcraft and the 70,000 Entered Apprentices, and remembered the words, "and when the Temple was completed, its several parts fitted with such exact nicety that it had more the appearance of being the handiwork of the Supreme Architect of the Universe than of human hands." So our lives should be builded, and the Holy Book upon the Altar shows us how. The Psalms teach us how to get along with God; The Proverbs how to get along with man, and other Books of the Bible teach us history, faith, love, honor, and above all, of God. As Joseph Fort Newton, that great Masonic scholar said: "Far better than any words about the Bible are the words of the Bible itself—so simple, so sublime, so searching, alike in the flaming splendor of its poetry and the grandic solidity of its prose—to read which is to know whence we came, why we are here, and whither we go. Read it Brethren, follow it faithfully, obey it honestly, trust it utterly, and learn that the religion of a Mason is to do justly, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with his God."

And now, finally, of Prayer. Prayer is the avenue by which man communicates with God. Show me a praying man, a sincere, praying man, and I'll show you a good man. When I say sincere, I don't just mean going through the motions, or like the Pharisee, thanking God that you are not like other men are. The Bible tells us that we are not heard for our much praying, nor when we pray loudly that other men may hear us.

Prayer is peculiarly a fundamental of Masonry. A lodge is opened with prayer; it is closed with prayer. Prayer is offered for the candidate, and he is invited to pray for himself, either orally or mentally. The candidate is told; "No man should enter upon any great or important undertaking without first invoking the blessing of Deity." That line struck me forcibly when I was a candidate almost forty-nine years ago, and it has ever stuck with me since. Did not Solomon of old, wise and great man that he was, every day enter the Holy of Holies, offer up his devotions to Deity and draw designs upon the trestleboard? A praying nation is a devout nation, and a devout nation can withstand the wrath of the mighty. Think of every Grand Lodge meeting tonight, and at the same hour invoking through their Grand Chaplain the blessings and guidance of Almighty God. Think of every lodge in the world meeting at the same time and petitioning the Lord to guide them in their work. Think of every home in the world tonight, and at bed time every person in every one of these homes kneeling to ask God to call down His blessing upon that day and that home. I don't believe even God could resist that appeal. Prayer, I say, is man talking to God, and a Mason talks to his God, and is not ashamed of it.

Think of Brother George Washington, when the fortunes of the thirteen colonies was at their lowest in the winter at Valley Forge, kneeling in the snow in the woods, where he was seen by an old Quaker farmer, petitioning Almighty God to help his ragged army in their struggle for independence. That picture will ever remain in my mind and memory. He was engaged in a great and important undertaking, and his prayers were answered.

Let me recall our attention to another great event in history where prayer was involved. The Constitutional Convention has been in session for quite some time, and was not getting any nearer to agreeing upon one, when serence old Benjamin Franklin, amidst the endless wrangling going on one day, arose and moved that thereafter prayer be offered each day. This was done, and a constitution was shortly adopted.

Compare this to the meeting of the nations of the world at San Francisco to establish the United Nations, which was done after a time, and after a sort. Prayers were not offered there; it would offend the Communists. And what have we? We have a so-called United Nations organization which exerts no effect upon the world as to war and peace except on nations who are very small and weak, and then only when, the Great Powers back it up. The Lord did not build that house; we built it, and built it in vain.

A Mason believes in prayer; he believes in talking with God. Everything about the great fraternity tells him so. I have observed many instances of the efficacy of prayer to those who believe, during my lifetime, and I expect to see many more. Please forgive me for telling you this one, but it so well illustrates the point.

Because I learned in this gentle fraternity that "No man should enter upon any great and important undertaking without first invoking the blessings of Deity," and because I believe that Justice is a great and important undertaking, in the fifteen years that I have been a Judge of the Superior Court, by the help of the Clerk of the Superior Court of each county, upon request by me to him, I have had a minister of the Church, immediately upon the opening of court by the Sheriff or Bailiff on Monday morning, to offer prayer in open court, for the guidance of the Court, and for those who have to do with its operation. Without exception, ministers are glad to take of their time and come to court to do it, although it may be an inconvenience to them. I lay no claim to unctious piety, but I believe in Masonry's God and in man's God, and I know that in the great undertaking of the administration of Justice, I and those who work with me, need His guidance.

There have been times, especially in Criminal Court, after a man had pleaded guilty, or the jury had found him guilty, when it came time to pass judgment upon a man, that I did not know what to do, whether to send him to prison, and if so, for how long, or whether to put him on work release if I did send him to prison, or whether to give him a suspended judgment upon the payment of a fine, or whether to put him on probation, and when the lawyer and the Solicitor were addressing me as to the judgment I was to give, I have leaned my head back against the leather chair, closed my eyes, and asked Him to tell me what to do. I never saw any fire from a burning bush out the window, nor heard any thunder from the sky, but every single time I have done this, when I raised my head and opened my eyes, I knew what to do, and was satisfied in my mind that that was the right and correct thing to do.

May each of us have a great and sustaining faith, like that William Cullen Bryant expresses in his great poem, "To a Waterfowl", when he said:

"He who from zone to zone
Guides through the sky the undertain flight
In the way that I must go alone
Will lead my steps aright."

In the language of the immortal Alexander Pope, a Mason should be one who is:

"Slave to no sect, who takes no private road,
But looks through Nature to Nature's God;
Pursues that chain which links the immense design,
Joins Heaven and earth and mortal and divine,
Sees that no being any bliss can know,
But touches some above and some below,

Learns from this union of the rising whole,
The first, last purpose of the human soul,
And knows where faith, law, morals all began,
All end in love to God and love to Man."

I make bold to call you and me, and all Masons, back to the fundamentals, and to think and say with Brother Rudyard Kipling:
"Lord God of Hosts, be with us yet,
Lest we forget, lest we forget."

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON MASONIC JURISPRUDENCE

(Docket No. 37)

The following report of the Committee on Masonic Jurisprudence was read by W. Brother William L. Mills, Jr., Junior Grand Deacon and the recommendation of the committee on each section was adopted, rejected or carried over to the next Annual Communication in 1971. The report was then adopted as a whole:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

After due deliberation and careful consideration your Committee on Masonic Jurisprudence reports:

ONE-STORY LODGE BUILDING

We recommend the Grand Lodge approve the action of the Grand Master as reported by him under this title. (Adopted)

DISPENSATIONS

We approve the action of the Grand Master in granting the dispensations as reported by him under this title. We recommend that the Grand Lodge approve each of them as reported by him. (Adopted)

OFFICIAL OPINIONS

In his report the Grand Master lists Opinions Nos. 1 and 2, on each of which we recommend approval. (Adopted)

UNOFFICIAL OPINIONS

The Grand Master issued one Unofficial Opinion during the year. This committee is not required to act on this opinion, but we do commend the manner of handling by the Grand Master.

ORDERS

The Grand Master issued Orders Nos. 1, 2, 3, 5, 6, 7, 8 and 9 on which we recommend approval. In connection with Orders Nos. 4 and 4A which are interrelated the committee unanimously recommends the following action:

We have carefully considered Orders Nos. 4 and 4A in the Grand Master's Report, and in regard thereto, it appears that Order No. 5 reported on pages 142 and 143 of the Proceedings of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina for 1969 entered by Grand Master Bass provided that:

"The division line of territorial jurisdiction between Eureka Lodge No. 317 and New Lebanon Lodge No. 314 shall be N. C. State Road 1338 and N. C. State Road 1351. All profanes living north of these two state roads shall be within the jurisdiction of New Lebanon Lodge No. 314 and all profanes living south of these two state roads shall be within the jurisdiction of Eureka Lodge No. 317."

That the foregoing order was considered by the Jurisprudence committee which approved the action of Grand Master Bass and said report was thereafter duly adopted by the Grand Lodge of North Carolina at its annual communication in 1969; that New Lebanon Lodge No. 314 acting under said order received two petitions from men residing in the affected territory, both of whom were subsequently initiated; that the foregoing action changing the jurisdictional lines was reconsidered by Grand Master Hooks, who entered Order No. 4 set forth in his report which provides, among other things, that:

"It was my opinion that Order No. 5 dated April 11, 1969 was in conflict with THE CODE and, therefore, would be null and void . . . that the territorial jurisdiction lines between New Lebanon Lodge No. 314 and Eureka Lodge No. 317 shall revert to their original locations as if no Order had ever been issued, and all questions involving jurisdiction of petitioners shall be determined as prescribed and directed in Regulation 48-02 of THE CODE."

And Order No. 4A set forth in said report which provides:

"That under the provisions of Regulation 48-16 of THE CODE the above-named candidates shall be the material of New Lebanon Lodge No. 314 and it may complete the work on them; however, New Lebanon Lodge No. 314 shall pay to Eureka Lodge No. 317 the sum of $100.00 for each of the two petitioners . . .

"I find it necessary to reprimand New Lebanon Lodge No. 314 for this flagrant violation of THE CODE and admonish them to desist from any further invasion of territorial jurisdiction."

It further appearing to the committee that the action of Grand Master Bass was taken in good faith, after a careful consideration of the territorial facts; that Grand Master Bass' action was approved by this committee without a proper and thorough study of THE CODE; that this committee recommended to the Grand Lodge of North Carolina that the action of Grand Master Bass be approved; that the action of Grand Master Bass was approved by the Grand Lodge of North Carolina; that the action recommended by this committee to the Grand Lodge of North Carolina was contrary to the provisions of THE CODE (Chapter 48) which sets forth the procedure for changes in territorial jurisdiction lines; that the change in the territorial jurisdiction lines between New Lebanon Lodge No. 314 and Eureka Lodge No. 317 was made contrary to the provisions of THE CODE; that at the time New Lebanon Lodge No. 314 received the petitions in question it was acting under an order made by Grand Master Bass which was subsequently approved by the Grand Lodge of North Carolina; and that this committee failed to apply the applicable law to the facts which resulted in the action taken by Grand Master Bass and Grand Master Hooks.

Based upon the foregoing facts, IT IS THE OPINION of this committee:

1. That Grand Master Bass acted in good faith on what he believed to be in the best interest of Masonry.
2. That New Lebanon Lodge No. 314 acted in good faith when it accepted petitioners who resided outside its original territorial jurisdiction.
3. That the Grand Lodge acted in good faith upon the recommendation of this committee.
4. That Grand Master Hooks acted in good faith by entering his Orders Nos. 4 and 4A now before this committee for consideration.
5. That the action of Grand Master Hooks in declaring Order No. 5 of Grand Master Bass null and void was ill-advised.

IT IS, THEREFORE ORDERED:

1. That the division line between the territorial jurisdiction of New Lebanon Lodge No. 314 and Eureka Lodge No. 317 shall be as it existed prior to April 11, 1969.

2. That Eureka Lodge No. 317 shall pay to New Lebanon Lodge No. 314 the sum of $100.00 for each of the two petitioners mentioned in Grand Master Hooks' Order No. 4A

3. That the reprimand to New Lebanon Lodge No. 314 be rescinded.

4. That the Grand Secretary be instructed to transmit this section of the report of the Committee on Masonic Jurisprudence to the Masters of New Lebanon Lodge No. 314 and Eureka Lodge No. 317, who shall cause the same to be read at the first stated communication following receipt thereof and entered on and made a part of the minutes of that stated communication.

5. That if either New Lebanon Lodge No. 314 or Eureka Lodge No. 317 shall hereafter desire to change the division line between their territorial jurisdictions, they shall take proper steps therefore pursuant to the terms and provisions of THE CODE.

(This section Adopted).

(Adopted)

Amend Regulation 51-01(1) and add subsections (3 and 3A) to read as follows:

1. The stated communications shall be held at such time as the lodge prescribes in its by-laws and shall be held at a definite hour on a particular week day of the calendar month. This subdivision cannot be dispensed with, except as provided in Regulations 51-01(3) and 51-02. [62-04; 91-01(1)].

In view of a number of complications that need to be considered, it is the recommendation of this committee that this be taken under further study and presented again in 1971. Motion duly made and seconded.

M. W. Brother Alfred A. Kafer, Jr., P. G. M., who originally proposed this amendment made a substitute motion that this proposed amendment to The Code be dropped. The motion was duly seconded and on vote the substitute motion was adopted.

The following proposed amendments to The Code were presented by the Code Commission or delegates to the Grand Lodge, at the session on Tuesday, April 21, 1970. We have included these proposed amendments in this report and they will be voted on only if unanimous consent is given by the Grand Lodge:

Amend Regulation 37-01(1) by adding subsection (A) to read as follows:

A. In order that the membership of subordinate lodges in North Carolina be promptly informed concerning any changes in Masonic Law and THE CODE, the Code Commission and the Grand Secretary shall publish any additions, deletions, amendments or changes to THE CODE in the North Carolina Mason.

(Note: Motion made and seconded that the Grand Lodge by unanimous consent take action on this proposed amendment. On vote the motion was rejected. This proposed amendment will, therefore, be acted on at the Annual Communication in 1971.)

Dues shall not start until the brother has passed proficiency and the membership card shall not be issued prior thereto. During this period, the brother may attend meetings and participate in discussion, but shall not have the right to vote, nor shall he be allowed to recommend candidates for the degrees. Should a Master Mason fail to present himself prepared for examination within six months, he shall be in default and a nonaffiliated Mason and shall have no rights except to apply for restoration to membership as provided in Regulation 81-07 of THE CODE. (60-01; 82-10).

At each Annual Communication, the Grand Master-elect shall nominate two members, each of them to serve for three years when confirmed by the Grand Lodge. - B. To promote, and to provide for the implementation in all North Carolina lodges, insofar as is possible, programs of Masonic education for candidates, members and officers, other than ritualistic coaching, authorized and approved by the Grand Lodge.

(Note: Motion made and seconded that the Grand Lodge by unanimous consent take action on this proposed amendment. On vote the motion was unanimously adopted.)

PRESENTATION OF BIBLE

M. W. Brother James W. Brewer, P. G. M., introduced W. Brother Tom Collins, Past Master of Concord Lodge No. 58, who presented to the Grand Lodge of North Carolina the Bible used at the first Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina.

M. W. BROTHER BREWER:

Most Worshipful Grand Master, Brethren, Distinguished Guests, this is a joyous occasion in our Grand Lodge this morning. As we know, every lodge when it opens has to have the Great Light on the Altar. On that night in 1787 the Grand Lodge of North Carolina was organized in Tarboro, North Carolina, under the leadership of Concord Lodge, a Tarboro lodge at that time. That Great Light, the Holy Bible that was used for that occasion, as time passed on, was lost in darkness. In this year while journeying in the jurisdiction of that lodge, one of the Past Masters came forward on an occasion and said that he had in his possession that Great Light and asked if I thought the Grand Lodge of North Carolina would cherish the ownership of that Great Light. I was startled and amazed. I told them I would communicate with the Grand Master immediately and thereupon, it was done. Today, I am happy to present to you W. Brother Tom Collins, who wishes to present to the Grand Lodge of North Carolina the original Great Light which was used at the organization of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina, on December 9, 1787 at Tarboro, N. C.

W. .BROTHER TOM COLLINS:

Brethren, I feel like this Bible was not just to itself by staying in my cedar chest. I feel like the Masons of North Carolina should have it and also, this Bible was used at the first General Assembly of North Carolina held in Tarboro back in the 1700's. At this time, it is my privilege to present to the Grand Lodge this Holy Bible used at our first Grand Lodge.

M. .W. .BROTHER WILLIAM A. HOOKS, GRAND MASTER:

I am happy to accept this Bible from you on behalf of the Masons in North Carolina. I am sure they agree with me that this is a most generous thing that you are doing. I want you to know that each and every one of us thank you.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON APPEALS

(Docket No. 41)

The Committee on Appeals presented the following report, which was read, and upon motion duly seconded was adopted by sections and then adopted as a whole:

To The Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

The Committee on Appeals respectfully submits the following report:

1. We have reviewed the record in all cases which have been completed since the Annual Communication of 1969, and now pending before the Committee, wherein the accused has been expelled under the provisions of REG. 99-22 by order of judgement of the Judge Advocate. We particularly directed our attention to the strict compliance with the Regulation, and in each of the following cases we recommend that the Judge Advocate be affirmed by the Grand Lodge:

TRIAL DOCKET NO. 246: In the Matter of Charges preferred against a Master Mason of Richard Caswell Lodge No. 705, A. F. & A. M.
Expelled June 8, 1968.

TRIAL DOCKET NO. 247: In the Matter of charges preferred against a Master Mason of Creasy Proctor Lodge No. 679, A. F. & A. M.
Expelled July 7, 1969.

TRIAL DOCKET NO. 248: In the Matter of Charges Preferred against a Master Mason of Garner Lodge No. 701, A. F. & A. M.
Expelled July 25, 1969.

TRIAL DOCKET NO. 249: In the Matter of Charges Preferred against a Master Mason of Phoenix Lodge No. 8.
Expelled August 12, 1969.

TRIAL DOCKET NO. 250: In the Matter of Charges Preferred against a Master Mason of Steele Creek Lodge No. 737, A. F. & A. M.
Expelled: August 22, 1969

2. There were no trials before a Trial Commission during the year since the last Annual Communication in 1969 wherein the penalty was expulsion. There was one trial before a Trial Commission in which the penalty imposed was suspension for 90 days, as follows:

TRIAL DOCKET NO. 245: In the Matter of Charges Preferred against a Master Mason of St. John's Lodge No. 4, A. F. & A. M., which we carefully reviewed, directing our attention to the validity of the appointment of Trial Commissioners, service of notice upon the accused, the competency and weight of the evidence presented at the trial, and the decision of the Trial Commission, all of which was in accordance with the TRIAL CODE. We recommend that the judgement of the Trial Commission be affirmed by the Grand Lodge.

APPLICATION FOR RESTORATION

1. In the Matter of the Application of W. A. J. to Masonic Rights and Privileges. This applicant was dismembered October 14, 1967 (Trial Docket No. 237), all requirements of THE CODE having been complied with by the applicant as respects his application. His former lodge, Berne Lodge No. 724, has made no recommendation in connection herewith. However, all of the Past Masters of said lodge except two who were out of town, the District Deputy Grand Master, and the Chief of Police of New Bern, have recommended in writing favorable action, as they did one year ago, when an application like this one was before the Grand Lodge. Applicants trial and expulsion was on October 14, 1967, which action was approved by the Grand Lodge in April, 1968. Within less than a year he applied for restoration, which was denied at the Annual Communication of 1969. The applicant was expelled for abandoning his family and committing adultery with a teen age girl. Our report is the same as last year: due to the comparatively short time that has transpired since applicant was dismembered, and due to the extreme seriousness of this matter, the Committee is of the opinion that it is too soon to give serious consideration to the restoration of the petitioner, and it therefore recommends that his petition for restoration to the rights and privileges of a non-affiliated Mason be denied.

2. In the Matter of the Application for Restoration of Jay Lewis Snuggs to Masonic Rights and Privileges. All requirements in connection with filing and serving Application have been complied with as required by THE CODE. The applicant was dismembered on June 9, 1958 (Trial Docket No. 136), and a copy of the application for restoration was served on Gastonia Lodge No. 369 as required by law. At the last Annual Communication action on this application was deferred until this Committee had more information, the application having come in shortly before that Annual Communication. Such information has been obtained. The lodge of which he was formerly a member, Gastonia Lodge No. 369, has unanimously approved the application at a stated meeting, and the Secretary of that lodge strongly recommend it, stating that the applicant has lived an exemplary life since his expulsion. After carefully examining the record in this matter, and taking into consideration all factors involved, this Committee recommends that the applicant be restored to all the rights and privileges of an unaffiliated Mason.

3. In the Matter of the Application for Restoration of John Edward Allen to Masonic Rights and Privileges. All requirements as to filing with the Grand Secretary and service on his former Lodge, Johnson-Caswell No. 10, from which the defendant was dismembered on September 24, 1949 (Trial Docket No. 16), have been complied with. At a stated communication of his former lodge, Johnson-Caswell Lodge No. 10, on January 19, 1970, the lodge unanimously voted to recommend favorable action on this application. The applicant has had his citizenship restored as required by law and by THE CODE. After carefully examining the record in this matter, and taking into consideration all factors involved, including the great service this man rendered Masonry while he was a member of the fraternity, the length of time he has been dismembered, and the fact that he has reached old age, this Committee unanimously and strongly recommends that this Grand Lodge restore John Edward Allen to all the rights and privileges of a non-affiliated Mason.

REPORT OF BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF MASONIC AND EASTERN STAR HOME OF NORTH CAROLINA, INCORPORATED

(Docket No. 43)

The Board of Directors of the Masonic and Eastern Star Home, Inc. presented the following report which was read and entered on the record:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

Considerable progress was made during the year 1969 in improving the physical properties of the Home. The construction of a new Care Center was begun on March 10th and is expected to be completed by late summer of 1970. The building contains four stories, three of which are to be completed and occupied as early as possible which will provide space for 56 beds. The plan is to complete the fourth floor as soon as funds are available which will increase the total capacity to 84 beds.

The cost of construction will approximate $850,000.00 which does not include furnishings and the total cost including furnishings will probably exceed $1,000,000.00.

The financing of this project was on this wise:

The Capital Improvements Fund at the time the contracts were signed totaled $547,284.00, necessitating additional funds being obtained to the extent of approximately $300,000.00. Your Board of Directors made the decision to borrow this amount from the Home's General Endowment Fund, which fund had never been used for any purpose. This Fund is considered a reserve or protection against some possible future emergent demands.

Definite plans were made to repay the amount so borrowed within a two-year period which, incidentally, was to bear no interest. This is being done on a monthly basis; $7,500.00 being transferred each month from the Masonic Reserve Fund as the Masons' share and a check for $5,000.00 being received each month from the Grand Chapter of North Carolina, Order of the Eastern Star, as the 40% share to be borne by that organization. During 1969, $125,000.00 was credited against the original loan of $300,000.00.

During the year, $113,000.00 was added to the Capital Improvements Funds from the usual sources such as Division of Guests' assets, Sale of Guests' Real Estate, Memorials received and Proceeds of Life Policies on Deceased Guests.

A new residence for the Superintendent was built in 1969 at a cost of approximately $49,000.00. The City of Greensboro routed a new street by the former home of the Superintendent rendering it unusable as a residence. As a result the city agreed to pay $60,000.00 for the house and for a narrow strip of land along the edge of the right-of-way.

The cost of operations has been increasing each year but probably not to the extent that the inflationary trend in the general economy would indicate. As of December 31, 1969, we had 141 Guests. Our permitted enrollment is 140 but occasionally due to an extreme emergency in the life of one on our waiting list, Executive Committee will authorize the admission of one or more over the limit. Because of this practice our average daily enrollment in 1969 was 140.32.

The total out-of-pocket expense for the year was $318,828.46 or an average cost of $6.225 per Guest per day and $2,272.15 per Guest per year. This compares with $5.757 per Guest per day for 1968.

The total expenditures including those connected with the Expansion Program, was $518,161.00, as per the following statement of receipts and disbursements:

OPERATING INCOME

Grand Lodge	$ 50,000.00
Subordinate Lodges	149,982.05
Grand Chapter, O.E.S. (Home Maintenance)	94,174.11
Guest in the Home	105,621.08
All Other	29.79
Total Operating Income	$399,807.03
Grand Chapter, O.E.S. (Home Expansion)	51,000.00
Due From Grand Chapter for 1969	19,829.93
Due From Masonic Reserve Fund for 1969	47,524.04
Total Received and Receivable	$518,161.00

DISBURSEMENTS

Administrative	$ 42,942.42
Direct Care	227,000.68
Home Aid Payments	2,490.00
Plant Operation	48,885.36
Total Operating Expense	$318,828.46
Appropriated for Capital Improvements Funds	71,842.54
Appropriated for General Endowment Fund	125,000.00
(Repayment of loan to Capital Improvements)
Total Expenses and Appropriations	$518,161.00

It will be noted from the foregoing that the Masonic sources, from which our funds are derived, fell short by some $47,000.00 of covering the obligations assumed for the year.

With the construction of the new Care Center our ten-year Expansion Program is nearing completion. However, it is our hope that within the not too distant future, through a plan of renovation rather than further expansion, plans can be made to remove the oldest part of the present building, which has been in use since 1913, and replace it with modern offices and dormitory space.

We are very grateful to the members in North Carolina who have been so loyal in support of the Home and who have contributed generously, not only through the Blue Lodges, but also through Scottish Rite and York Rite organizations.

The members of your Board of Directors deem it an honor and a privilege to serve the members of our Fraternity in this important capacity.

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT N. BASS, JR. President

RESOLUTION OF THANKS TO DURHAM

(Docket No. 44)

To the thriving, progressive and hospitable City of Durham in North Carolina's Triad, trooped from all over The Old North State on Tuesday, April 21st, almost 1,000 Master Masons to seal a link and begin to forge a new one in that line of Annual Communications of the venerable and yet so virile Grand Lodge of Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons of North Carolina.

Having been extended a most cordial invitation to be the guests of Durham at this time of transition of North Carolina Masonry, members of the Craft all over this State of Tarheelia from the banks, the beautiful coastlands, the rolling hills of the uplands and Piedmont to the glorious mountains, came expecting only the greatest of welcome from this city of religious, educational, cultural and civic achievements.

In all cities where we have met have we been warmly welcomed, none poorly, all good but some even better than others. We are so happy to observe that Durham has equalled all—and excelled most—in the warmth of its welcome and the maintenance of this hospitality that we reluctantly part from such genial and competent hosts.

The annual Proceedings of this 183rd Annual Communication will not be of sufficient size to name here the name of each dedicated brother of the staff of that host of hosts, General Chairman Claibourne Lawson; however, to him and through him to each member of his terrific group, we express our heartfelt thanks—Yea, even to the Durham weatherman for this glorious weather. He has treated us to such glorious days he must be a Mason.

To really express on the part of each of us, let's stand and give a rising vote of thanks and a resounding round of applause for the brethren responsible for this tremendously successful Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge of Masons in North Carolina.

REPORT OF THE GRAND LECTURER

(Docket No. 47)

The following report of the Grand Lecturer was presented by W. Brother Charles T. Potter, received and entered on the record:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

The past three years I have been privileged to serve as Grand Lecturer. It has been one of the most enjoyable experiences of my life. It has been rewarding, exciting, enjoyable, and, at times, difficult. I cannot adequately express my appreciation to Most Worshipful Brothers Alfred A. Kafer Jr., Robert N. Bass Jr., and William A. Hooks for bestowing upon me this great honor and to the Board of Custodians for their recommendation and support.

The year 1969 has been most fruitful. Progress in Masonic education and proficiency in the ritualistic work is quite gratifying and the end result of cooperation between subordinate lodge officials and the Certified Lecturers throughout our Grand Jurisdiction. This achievement is credited in no small measure to our predecessors.

To those throughout our 65 districts who have borne the burden of promoting Freemasonry, of Masonically educating our subordinate lodge officers and generally striving for proficiency, our very capable District Deputy Grand Lecturers, enough cannot be said. It is they who have labored and who have given so unselfishly of their time and to them goes credit for the success we are now experiencing. To them I am most grateful for their contribution, for their cooperation and for their dedication to the cause of Freemasonry.

For the many courtesies extended to me, the invitation to visit both socially and fraternally, I am most grateful. My sincere regrets and apologies for not being able to attend all of them.

The lecture service has been good. Reports are that lecture services have been well attended and that the brethren have eagerly participated in the services. The revised OSW has been in use now for more than two years. Its acceptance has been enthusiastic. Changes have been placed into use. This is reflected wherever ritualistic work has been observed. Reports from District Deputy Grand Lecturers indicate that district schools of instruction have been well attended and ritualistic work assigned to participants is outstanding. These reports are literally glowing with enthusiasm.

The Lodge System of Masonic Education is generally being used by all lodges. In some subordinate lodges the use is very limited. Where it is used, its value to our newly-made Masons has substantially contributed to the present state of Masonic interest. More serious application of the Lodge System of Masonic Education is strongly recommended.

GRAND MASTER WILLIAM ARTHUR HOOKS

Grand Masters come and go. Another, M. W. Brother William Arthur (affectionally known as Bill) Hooks, is about to go, from the office of Grand Master with its many and demanding duties and responsibilities, but not from Masonic activity, or from the thoughts and hearts of the Masons of North Carolina, especially those who had the privilege of working with him this year.

Grand Master Hooks has left his mark indelibly on Masonry in North Carolina, and has become known nationwide. He is a dedicated Mason, and a dedicated Grand Master. In the time of those who attend this Grand Lodge no Grand Master has put more into his work as Grand Master than has our present and outgoing Grand Master, and the seed that he has planted will bring forth good fruit. He has sought to unite all Masons under the banner of Masonry, and has sought to avoid division and cliques.

This Grand Master has finally got something going that has been talked about for a long time, and not too much done about it, and that is Masonic Education, the greatest need we have. Plans have been laid, long range plans, in which many who are interested in this Masonic activity have and are giving much. Grand Master Hooks sparked this, and has got it going so that it will keep going.

By working with those coming up in the line he has created a continuity in effort and plan which ought to work wonders for the Masonry in North Carolina. He has not been concerned just with making a name for himself, but to call Masons back to their first calling and purpose, the building of men and service to the Craft.

No one can say that he has not worked, and worked hard. It is no small job to attend to and speak to sixty-five District Meetings, besides all the other meetings and visits, and administrative duties the ever increasing membership in North Carolina requires. Our Grand Master is first and last a Blue Lodge Mason, and there is where his chief interest lies, as well it ought.

Grand Master Hooks is his own man, one who doesn't think he knows it all, but who seeks help and advice, and then makes up his own mind, and he has had some tough decisions to make, some that it took a man to make. But he has measured up to every expectation of him. He does not believe that because a man is Grand Master that he is the Grand Lodge himself and alone, but that it takes the efforts of many good men, as many as will serve, to make Masonry do its job in this Grand Jurisdiction.

As evidence of his outstanding qualities, Most Worshipful Brother Hooks was elected and served as Chairman of the Grand Masters Conference in Washington, D. C. in 1970, presiding over the deliberations of that body, containing some prima donnas, with skill and ability, with great credit to himself and honor to the fraternity. As such Chairman, he presided at the Grand Masters' Banquet, with great poise and the exact right touch. He was invited to speak at a seminar of the Imperial Shrine in Shreveport in March, on Shrine and Masonic Relations, and was the only Grand Master invited to speak at this meeting.

This Grand Lodge has been on the move this year, and it is because of Most Worshipful Brother Hooks. He will long be remembered, if he never comes to Grand Lodge again, but being the kind of man that he is, he will continue to be serving Masonry full and well.

He has worked hard. He has well served the Craft. He is a dedicated and sincere Mason, and may the Lord bless him and long spare him to serve this Grand Lodge and the cause of Masonry. We shall miss him as Grand Master. We could look to him with confidence and pride. He has endeared himself to the Masons in North Carolina. May we have others like him. He will go down in history as a great Grand Master.

The Budget for the year ending April 30, 1970 has been carefully examined and we are happy to report that the expenditures are in keeping with our budget, however, an audit has not been made as of this time, since our year ends on April 30, 1970, but a copy of the audit will be printed in the Proceedings for your information.

We have consulted with the Board of Directors of the North Carolina Masonic Foundation, Inc. and can report they have transferred to the Oxford Orphanage and Masonic and Eastern Star Home $35,000.00 each during this past fiscal year. We recommend the income from the Foundation continue to be contributed direct to the Oxford Orphanage and the Masonic and Eastern Star Home. We have budgeted enough money from the General Fund of the Grand Lodge to insure each institution shall receive a minimum of $50,000.00 during the coming fiscal year.

We recommend the Grand Master and the Chairman of the Committee on Finance scrutinize the General Fund in May authorizing the surplus funds, in their discretion, be transferred to the capital investment of the Foundation.

We recommend the Grand Master have authority, when he deems it advisable for the best interest of the Grand Lodge, to suspend the allotment made to any committee, activity, or agency of the Grand Lodge.

We recommend further that when it shall appear for the best interest of the Grand Lodge, the Grand Master be authorized to give written authorization for this budget to be exceeded by any department, agency or office to incur out-of-ordinary expenses not herein provided for, within availability of funds.

INSTALLATION REMARKS OF

M. W. BROTHER MAURICE ELLEDGE WALSH

I am delighted to see this fine attendance tonight, and I also appreciate the out-of-state guests who remained to witness this installation.

Again I want to express my sincere appreciation to M. W. Brother Charles C. Ricker for appointing me in this Grand Lodge line in 1962 and for installing me tonight. I also wish to thank Brother William J. Bundy for acting as Grand Marshal and my son, Steve, for acting as Assistant Grand Marshal, and the officers of my own home lodge, North Wilkesboro Lodge No. 407, who have occupied the stations and places in Grand Lodge during the installation and who will close the Grand Lodge at the conclusion of this installation.

I want to recognize the officers of my lodge at this time. Will these brethren please stand and remain standing: T. G. Foster, Master; Richard

C. Current, Senior Warden; William F. Owen, Jr., Junior Warden; T. A. Welborn, Treasurer; Homer Huffman, Secretary; J. B. McCann, Senior Deacon; Thomas G. Vannoy, Junior Deacon; Robert A. Birkhead, Steward; Vernon Efird, Steward; Paul Church, Tyler; Tam Shumaker, Chaplain. Now will the other members of North Wilkesboro Lodge No. 407 and their ladies stand. Now will all the brethren and ladies from the 50th District please stand. Brethren and ladies, you don't know how much this means to me tonight for this fine delegation to come and see this installation. I appreciate it more than words can express. I believe that I have my right-arm and co-worker, W. S. Thomas and his wife, present tonight and I also want to recognize them at this time.

It is always a great joy when any son can look out upon the smiling face of his mother. Mother, I know this was a real hardship on you and I am so grateful you could be present. Would you please stand. My mother is 79 years young.

Now, the pride and joy of the Walsh family, our son Steve, who acted as Assistant Grand Marshal, and his girl friend, Miss Jane Buckland.

Last, but certainly not least, the manager of the Walsh household, Pat, who has put up with me for 32 years. I depend on her so much and she will be the one who will mean so much to me during this year.

My program for the year will be the continuation of the programs as put forth by my worthy predecessors; that is, support of our two wonderful institutions. And believe me, brethren and ladies, in our Masonic and Eastern Star Home and Oxford Orphanage, we have two of the greatest institutions in these United States of America, and two of the grandest superintendents.

I pledge my support to our youth orders, DeMolay for boys and Rainbow for girls, and at this time I want to recognize the newest chapter in North Carolina and twelve members of the DeMolay Chapter at Mount Pleasant. Would they please stand along with Brother Sam Miller, Past District Deputy Grand Master.

We want to continue the celebration of St. John's Day, also the support of the public schools. Let us remember, brethren, that only in the free nations, the democratic nations, have public schools been allowed to thrive and grow. Let us rededicate our lives to God and country; stand for law and order; and support our elected officials at all levels of government by standing up and speaking out on the vital issues of the day. Let us perform as our forefathers—as men and as Masons.

Now just a few words about the most important part of our program, the Masonic Education program. This year we will not have district meetings. Instead, we will have Area Conferences, District Conferences and District Workshops, with tremendous emphasis placed on Masonic education at the Blue Lodge level. And, brethren of this Grand Jurisdiction, you will be seeing your corps of Grand Lodge officers at work in the field with these district men, who are the work horses of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina. We do hope to bring Masonry to the forefront again. Let's begin our new Masonic year now with a prayer. Will you join me?

O God, as we face the task to be accomplished this year, we pray that you may inspire us with new vision and new levels of understanding. Make us great in devotion to truth, gallant in our desire for honor, and gentle in our dedication to good will. Make us tall for those trying times; make us strong against pomp and power; make us of the dimension to keep brashness from our speech and hasteness from our conduct. Give us persistent courage and creative determination that we might all share in the glory of accomplishment. Thus we make our prayer. So mote it be. Amen

Again, I appreciate so much all of you being present and you are cordially invited to the reception in the Hill Room immediately following this installation.

PRESENTATION OF PAST GRAND MASTER'S JEWEL TO M. 'W. ' WILLIAM ARTHUR HOOKS

A Past Grand Master's Jewel was presented to M. 'W. ' Brother William Arthur Hooks, P. G. M., by M. 'W. ' Brother James W. Brewer, P. G. M., Grand Treasurer.

M. 'W. ' BROTHER BREWER:

Most Worshipful Sir, and friends assembled, nine years ago on the third Wednesday of the year 1961 in the city of New Bern, Craven County, North Carolina, our Most Worshipful Sir, the Junior Past Grand Master, began his advancement up the rungs of that ladder that leads to the purple of our Fraternity. Through these nine years he has labored hard in the quarries of Masonry. And this last year, through the aid and support of his wife and the 67,000 Masons of North Carolina, he has accomplished a great mission. He has spread Masonry from the ocean to the mountains, from Virginia to the South Carolina borders. He has earned this token of appreciation and love as a momenta for his service to the Craft. Now, Most Worshipful Sir, which you will be called all the days of your life, I hope that you wear it with distinction to yourself and honor to the Fraternity for the years to come and I congratulate you on a job well done.

JAMES G. JOHNSTON, P.G.M.

CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEE ON
FRATERNAL CORRESPONDENCE

FOREWORD

For the third consecutive year the pleasurable opportunity of visiting a great many of our sister Grand Lodges through the printed pages of their annual Proceedings has been afforded us by appointment at the hands of M. W. William A. Hooks, Grand Master. Again the experience has been gratifying and beneficial; yet we are saddened by the continuing decline in membership in so many of our Grand Lodges and the lachrymose admission on the part of many that no answer to this perplexing problem exists.

We continue in the very firm belief that the problems which plague our Fraternity are not attributable to the Fraternity itself; rather we see our problems as symptomatic of the ills which confront the society generally, including our family life, our churches, our nation and its government and, indeed, all the peoples of the world and their governments. The basic principles which underlie the Fraternity of Freemasons have forever been the guide by which individuals, groups and nations have molded their lives in a framework of morality. Let us, then, not look at Freemasonry while weeping and gnashing our teeth. Let us, instead, place the burden where the burden lies—with us.

We have the distinct feeling that much can be done to allay the exodus from our ranks with the resulting constant diminution of our numbers.

As Masonic leaders, all of us can look with some degree of exactitude at the economics of Freemasonry's needs. Fees for the degrees in Freemasonry in all too many cases have not advanced over the years in keeping with the decline in the purchasing power of our unit of currency. The continuing result is manifold. To begin with, Freemasonry does not attract in proper quantity minds fitted for leadership. All too often Lodges elect to office men ill-qualified for these offices simply because no better qualified men are available, which in itself removes additional able men from the realm of potential candidates.

Contributory, also, are substandard and/or unkempt Lodge rooms, Lodge halls and outdated Masonic Temples, all of which are the direct result of the lack of funds, mismanagement and poor leadership. This is not to say that Lodge quarters should be plush, but to create interest, Masonic properties should stir the imagination and not repel as obsolete, outmoded relics of another day.

Laying aside for the moment the thought that the problems which confront us are the direct result of expanding moral degeneracy, the pursuit of mundane pleasures which naturally dull one's appetite for philosophic reflection, let us consider possible avenues through which we may travel for the betterment of the Masonic position in the world society. We have already mentioned economics as one avenue. Others may well lie in:

A relaxing of the shroud of high secrecy which surrounds the Fraternity. Freemasonry is not a secret organization; it is an organization with only one secret. Its aims, its purposes, its beneficence are well known, and here again the definite feeling persists that that shroud can be lifted by proper leadership. The idea of secrecy is so instilled into the mind of the candidate that he fears even to discuss Freemasonry with non-Masons. This fear lingers and frequently remains throughout his Masonic life. Informed leadership, coupled with proper instruction, at the Symbolic Lodge level is the answer to this nagging problem.

There is nothing under the sun to prohibit our attempting to improve our understanding of the things which beset our society and our fraternity today. The era of darkness through which we apparently are going today should stimulate us to action. As we are often told in our Masonic work, understanding is light. Enlightened officers will result in enlightened members. Enlightened members will result in a rebirth of the image Freemasonry bore for centuries in the eyes of the communities across our land. Educational programs without the force of law behind them are useless to a great degree. By law more and more Grand Lodges are requiring Lodge officers to exhibit competence in conferring the Degrees as a condition to installation. By extension Lodge officers may be required to attend X number of officer's schools of instruction as a condition to installation. Failure to attend should rightly end in debarment.

The glorious history of Freemasonry has no counterpart in the fraternal world. Contemporary Freemasonry is being permitted to coast to destruction just as the church, as a thing of influence, is dying, and just as the moral fibre of the nation decays relentlessly. Now is the time to awaken. Now is the time to turn the tide of indifference, indolence and disinterestedness on the part of Masonic leaders, Lodge officers and members of the Craft.

No longer can we live on Masonry's past. No longer can we expect history to carry us. No longer can we tolerate ignorance of Masonic procedure. No longer can we expect worthy and qualified men to come into the Masonic fold in the face of today's dire predictions of a dim future.

The future is not dim; the future is bright if we awaken to the opportunities which are ours. Let us begin with an improved leadership—within ourselves.

One Hundred and Forty-Ninth Annual Communication

November 18-19, 1969

Montgomery, Alabama

M. W. Howard E. Blackwell, Grand Master, presided. Fifteen Past Grand Masters were present, introduced, conducted and welcomed after the ancient manner. Grand Officers, past and/or present, of 11 other Grand Jurisdictions were also recognized, conducted to the East and welcomed.

Fifty-year Gold Awards were presented to 277 Venerable Brethren during the year.

Grand Master Blackwell reported that there were 1,349 deaths among Alabama Masons during the year; also M. W. R. Bruce Spencer, Grand Master of Arkansas, who was reared in Raleigh and educated in North Carolina at N. C. State University.

Grand Master Blackwell had a busy year. He issued 58 Dispensations, denied one and held 13 Grand Lodge Emergent Communications. In addition he appointed 11 Grand Representatives and nominated 4 and attended 25 lodge and special meetings and Annual Communications of 7 other Grand Lodges. Numerous Rulings, Opinions and Edicts were also issued.

Concluding his report Grand Master Blackwell said,

"We are concerned about our loss in membership, however, let us give thanks for those dedicated Masons who are willing to give of their time and effort to promote the principles in which we believe.

"I have a certain pride, just as you have, in our glorious past. I am proud just as you are proud, to be a member of such a Fraternity, but we should not be content to live in the past. We should not be content to rest upon laurels won by Masons of another day, of another age.

"With 'isms' of every kind threatening us on every side, with our free institutions attacked even by those who were born under them, there is no limit to the work there is for Masons to do. Let us ask ourselves some questions. Are we worthy successors of Masons who have preceded us? Are we performing the service we well may be expected to perform? Are we giving of our time and effort to civic, social and political affairs?

"Masons of today should not be less assiduous than Masons of yesteryear in that service to which our obligations bind us whenever and wherever opportunity offers."

John Brannon, Oakman, Alabama, was elected Grand Master for 1970.

The Eighty-Seventh Annual Communication was held in Phoenix on April 28 and 29, 1969. M. W. G. Melvin Reese, Grand Master, presiding.

Twenty Grand Masters and Past Grand Masters of other Grand Jurisdictions were presented, welcomed and received after the ancient manner. Twenty Past Grand Masters of Arizona were also present and properly received.

Six Special Communications were held, five for the purpose of Constituting Lodges and one for the purpose of laying the cornerstone and Dedication of the new Masonic Temple of Black Mountain Lodge No. 44.

Death entered the ranks of members of constituent lodges 276 times during the year.

Two Lodges were consolidated by Dispensation from the Grand Master.

Grand Master Reese attributed Arizona's Masonic growth (one of six having an increase in membership during the year he reported) to enthusiastic leadership on the part of Lodge officers, combined with their efforts to communicate to the candidates the meaning of the principles of Masonry.

He said further that it should be the fervent prayer that expansion should be not in mere numbers alone, but in the vital part of our fraternity—the development of the individual Mason.

Grand Master Reese handed down 3 Decisions, one of which permitted the use of the word "Masonic" and the Masonic Emblem on the letterhead of an organization directly under the supervision of four Constituent Lodges. Another denied a Lodge the right to go "dark" during the months of July and August. The third concerned the granting of Waivers in concurrent jurisdictions. All were approved and adopted.

One of the Grand Master's ten Recommendations was that all Lodges located in Arizona have concurrent jurisdiction. Held over until the next Annual Communication. Another was that certain Grand Lodge funds invested in corporation securities be increased from 40% to 75%. Approved.

He also recommended that fraternal recognition be withdrawn from the Grand Lodges of Egypt and Czechoslovakia as having been out of existence for some time. Adopted.

The Grand Orator, W. Brother Thomas P. Nelson, in magnificent address, pointed to the glories of Freemasonry from a historical standpoint and looked objectively at Masonry today when he said,

"The past is secure. Masonry had a silent but mighty part in the making of America, and in fashioning its fundamental life and law. The story of the American revolution might have been very different, had not Washington and his generals, most of them at any rate, been together by the peculiar tie which Masonry spins and weaves among men.

"But what of the future of Masonry in America and in the world? Obviously such an order lies under special obligations to our country in these tangled times. Masonry, as now practiced and employed, is not serving the demands of a realistic and better educated generation, and that to go on making men Masons, as we are now doing, without giving them an intelligent and authentic knowledge of what Masonry is, or what it means, with no definite objectives beyond fellowship and philanthropy, objectives to which other orders are equally devoted, is for Masonry to lose, by ignorance or neglect, what has been distinctive in its history, and invite degeneration if not disaster. I think we need to examine the things that we are doing today."

In prescribing a beautiful future for Masonry he closed his address thus:

"So let us as Masons set a high standard of conduct and character as a basic requirement to be a true fellow of the Craft, a man to be trusted, a man devoted to the creating of a better world and a better way of life in this darkened hour of uncertain civilization. Let us try to make good men better, to bring about peace, harmony and true understanding through the spiritual Brotherhood of man under the Fatherhood of God.

"To the young men who will receive the Masonic torch and to the old who now bear it, we say if we wish to possess the joys and abundance of life that have been laid aside for us, look forward to giving, more sympathy, more mutual helpfulness, and more charity to your fellowman, no matter what his fate might have been in the past, no matter how many trials he has passed through or how many obstacles he has met in his path.

"Let us as Masons keep our spirits fresh. Let us look forward and direct our Masonic activities toward the future. The future is filled with sunshine and happiness and holds out the gift of a well spent and rewarding life to all mankind.

"It is man's privilege to build, strengthen, and mold his character. Let us, therefore, do our part. Let us open our minds and our hearts to the teachings of Masonry. We will then have fully justified the faith other men had in us, when we were accepted into this sacred fraternity."

Grand Master-Elect, Thomas D. Henderson, and his officers were installed in a public ceremony.

The Eighty-Eighth Annual Communication will be held in the Valley of the Sun on Monday, April 27, 1970.

Ninety-Eighth Annual Communication

The Ninety-Eighth Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge of British Columbia was opened in Ample Form in the Empress Hotel, Victoria, at 9:30 a.m. on Thursday, June 19, 1969. M. W. James S. Hogg, Grand Master, presided. Five Grand Lodge Officers, Junior Grand Deacon, Grand Director of Ceremonies, Grand Sword Bearer*, Grand Pursuivant and Grand Steward, were absent.

*Deceased

Thirteen Past Grand Masters were present.

Civic welcome was extended by Mayor Hugh R. Stevens. Twelve Grand Officers, past and/or present, of other Grand Lodges were presented, introduced and properly welcomed. Only 8 constituent lodges were not represented at this Annual Communication.

In closing his report to the Grand Lodge, Grand Master Hogg said,

"We should always remember that we Freemasons are a breed of men apart—apart from the uncertain vagaries and irregularities of so-called modern society. To us, as to the practising Christian or Jew, has been given a particular moral code and a set of rules or standards, and it is very much to our credit when we measure up to those standards. Never forget, my Brethren, that when once you have been made a Freemason, you are a changed man, you can never be relegated to your former status in life. Oliver Wendell Holmes once said 'Men are tattooed with their special beliefs like so many South Sea Islanders'. It is my earnest belief that Freemasonry implants a mark upon man almost as visible as a purple tattoo; and it is no surprise that the general public is very much aware of it. This no doubt has been experienced by both you and I (sic) on countless occasions, with not the slightest clue being given, as to our Masonic profession. Therefore we should at all times be prepared to act according to the precepts inculcated within the walls of our various Lodges, as it is readily evident that we can never escape from those precepts, nor abandon them. Because of the public identity of us with our beloved Order, and perhaps because we do not always realize it, many of us are not aware of the tremendous power we can exert for good in the theatre of social indifference. May I exhort you my Brothers to use your Freemasonry and its teachings ever more effectively both within and without your Lodges. Then we shall march progressively and peacefully forward in the golden years ahead."

Finances of the Grand Lodge and of the constituent lodges appear to be in excellent condition.

Grand Master-Elect Wallace McRae and his officers were installed and the Grand Lodge closed in Ample Form on June 20, 1969.

During this Communication 1,517 Officers and Representatives from 706 Chartered Lodges and 1 Lodge U.D., 1,258 Past Masters, and 50 distinguished guests from other jurisdictions were present.

Eight Special Communications were held in 1967 from October 21 to December 16, and 27 were held in 1968 up to and including October 5.

Devotional and memorial service was held, including Necrology report by Edward A. Underwood.

In the opening moments of his address Grand Master Hopp recommended that a special Committee be appointed by the incoming Grand Master to communicate the fundamentals of Freemasonry to every Master Mason by groups. Such communication to be undertaken on various Grand Lodge Programs by speakers capable of interestingly presenting the basic teachings of Symbolic Masonry. This recommendation was approved and adopted.

Fraternal recognition of the Grand Lodge of Cuba was continued. Fraternal Relations Committee said it saw no valid reason for severing the bonds of amity which link the Grand Lodge of California with that of Cuba. Recognition of the Grand Lodges of Brazilia, Goias and Pernambuco, Brazil was deferred for further consideration.

Masonic Homes at Union City and Covina are maintained and operated. At Union City on June 30, 1968 there were 315 residents, including 17

An Edict directed all Lodges to refuse requests for official mailing lists of their Lodges for political mailing purposes.

Many amendments to revise the Book of Constitutions were submitted by the Committee appointed for this purpose. Some were adopted and some were rejected.

In closing his address, Grand Master Shafer said in part,

"We are living in a changing, dynamic world! There are forces of evil at work over which no one seems to have control. Civilization needs the influence of good men more than it ever has before. I am convinced that the time for us as Masons to discontinue the practice of not showing our virtues is past. We need, by means of whatever communication is available, to demonstrate to the world that we are in the dynamic pursuit of the finest set of moral principles yet devised by man.

"Consequently, I have sought at every opportunity to present, suitably, the image of Masonry to the public. In pursuit of this policy, I appointed a Public Relations Committee which has functioned admirably. With the help of this Committee we have initiated a program of press releases for important Masonic events with remarkable success."

Permission was denied for a Lodge to have work done on one of its candidates at a regular Communication by a degree team of Indians from Oklahoma and to a Lodge to render a Masonic funeral service for a deceased Entered Apprentice.

Opened in Ample Form at 9:00 o'clock a.m. M. W. Clyde S. McLaren, Grand Master, presided. Nineteen Past Grand Masters were presented and welcomed after the ancient manner, as were 10 Grand Officers, past and/or present, from other Grand Jurisdictions.

In his report, Grand Master McLaren said in part,

"I am happy to report that Masonry in Florida is continuing to grow both numerically and in Masonic activity. We feel there are a number of contributing factors that have brought this about. Much of our growth can be attributed directly to our strong Youth Program, which is and has been for the past several years, under the very able leadership of M. W. Hobart D. Pelhank. Equally important is the continuation of the Program started by our Past Grand Masters to have Family Nights and other programs whereby families and friends can attend. We feel it is of the utmost importance to bring the family into Masonry and Masonry into the family. The progressive thinking of our Past Grand Masters and the action of Grand Lodge allowing the Particular Lodges to participate in civic affairs has likewise helped in the growth of Masonry in our State. The cooperation between the Blue Lodges and the various Appendant Bodies has proven a potent ingredient in making a healthier and stronger Masonic family."

Grand Master McLaren refused 5 requested dispensations and granted 94 for various and sundry Masonic purposes. Thirteen cornerstones were laid, of which 5 were Masonic and the remainder were for public and/or private buildings. Twenty-one Executive Orders were issued.

Twenty-five-year certificates and lapel emblems were given to 1,159 Brethren; 167 Fifty-year certificates were awarded to veterans Masons.

Guests from Canada and the Grand Master took places side by side while the color bearers displayed the flags of the United States and of Canada side by side, as members rose and sang "Two Countries by the Sea".

A charter was granted Square and Compass Lodge No. 747. Constellation Lodge at Evansville was continued under Dispensation for an additional year.

The per capita levy for operation of the Indiana Masonic Home was increased from $4.00 per dues-paying member per year to $8.96 per dues-paying member per year, effective with payment of Grand Lodges dues after January 1, 1970 (Pages 31, 80-81).

A budget for operation of the Home for the fiscal year 1969-70, anticipating expenditures of $2,263,854.68, was adopted.

As an emergency measure, authority was granted the Board of Directors to borrow funds not to exceed $300,000 to meet operating costs during the latter months of 1969 and the first part of 1970, prior to the time per capita assessments are received.

Legislation was adopted to require review of the Masonic Home budget annually, and to fix a per capita assessment adequate to operate under its approved budget.

Legislation was adopted to separate the Masonic Home annual assessment from the amount paid by members in annual Lodge dues, thereby making it possible for members to claim their Masonic Home assessment as a deductible item in computing taxable net income.

Fraternal recognition was granted the Grand Lodge of the Dominican Republic.

The Grand Master's decree of November 27, 1968 withdrawing fraternal recognition from the Grand Lodge of Cuba was confirmed.

A report from the study committee containing specific recommendations for improvement of the actual Past Master Degree and removal of the more serious abuses in connection therewith was referred to the incoming Grand Master for implementation.

Study continued for an additional year, with request that Grand Lodge in 1970 be prepared with specific information upon which to make a decision as to whether State-wide concurrent jurisdiction shall be adopted for a trial period.

A resolution calling for a special study of the Masonic Home hospital and medical program was adopted.

Pickard Lodge No. 690 was placed on probation for failure to be represented in Grand Lodge for two consecutive years.

The probationary period for Cayuga Lodge No. 584, imposed in 1968, was continued an additional year.

Grand Master's action in setting up an experimental program of Masonic instruction approved and continued for two-year period.

Grand Master's action in creating a Grand Lodge Historical Commission approved.

The Dr. E. M. Dill Trophy, awarded the Lodge which had the highest percentage of its members participating in the Ten-for-Ten program with a contribution of $5 or more, was awarded Wilbur A. Full Lodge No. 744, Muncie. With 100 per cent participation for the third consecutive year, Wilbur A. Full Lodge becomes the permanent holder of the trophy.

Concerning ten annual consecutive losses in membership the Grand Master said,

"The gains and losses registered by our Lodges in any given year do not necessarily reflect the condition of the Fraternity, but since figures, plus or minus, play such an important part in our thinking and planning, the Grand Master calls to your attention the detailed report of gains and losses contained in the report of the Grand Secretary.

"This report shows that our Lodges experienced a net decline for the tenth consecutive year—a net decrease of 1,808 for the calendar year 1968.

"It would appear to be more than coincidental that the excessive net losses have occurred in the larger and older Lodges situated in cities and metropolitan areas. By contrast, the smaller Lodges and younger Lodges, and those working in small towns or suburban communities have done very well. Their decreases, if any, have been nominal. Generally speaking, they have held their own or registered gains."

M. W. Carl L. Hibbard, Past Grand Master (1948-1949) passed away on December 13, 1968, after a long and confining illness.

Robert P. Joyce was elected and installed Grand Master, 1969-1970.

One Hundred and Twenty-Fifth Annual Communication held in Cedar Rapids on September 17, 1969. M. W. Edwin A. Hamilton, Grand Master, presiding. Past Grand Masters present—14. Past and/or present Grand Lodge Officers of other Grand Jurisdictions present—20.

Emergent Communications—15—to Institute, Constitute and dedicate lodges and Lodge Halls, for laying cornerstones, and to conduct the funeral services of 2 Past Grand Officers.

Grand Master Hamilton granted 36 Dispensations, issued 4 Opinions and Decisions, and made 2 Recommendations.

In his State of the Craft portion of his address, the Grand Master said,

"The laying of several cornerstones and dedications of new temples bear testimony to the fact that Freemasonry is still alive and making progress in Iowa. There is nothing wrong with Iowa Masonry that work cannot overcome. We have one very great problem that has been with us for years. It is one for which there is no excuse and one for which we should be thoroughly ashamed. It is the lack of attendance at our annual communication. During the month of January over 500 Worshipful Masters promise a regular attendance on the committees and communications of the Grand Lodge on receiving proper notice and to pay attention to all the duties of Freemasonry on convenient occasions. Do they forget this promise or have they lost some of the integrity that a Worshipful Master should have? Freemasonry is built on truth and this grave fault should be and must be corrected. It is my hope that every Worshipful Master will truly become a bright and shining example to those who shall follow him.

"In summation I would say that Freemasonry in Iowa is on a firm foundation and has more for which it can be proud than that for which it should be ashamed."

General Fund disbursements were $184,616.84 against appropriated funds of $204,011.65.

One Hundred and Fifty-Eighth Annual Grand Communication, New Orleans, Louisiana, February 3 and 4, 1969. M.'W.' David P. Hartman, Grand Master, presiding. Emergent Communications—7. Twenty-three past and/or present Grand Officers from 16 other Grand Jurisdictions were received and welcomed after the ancient manner.

Concluding his report, Grand Master Hartman said,

"During this year in using my theme 'Men must have a FAITH by which to live,' I have tried to stress this faith we all professed in that very first degree of Masonry. Along with faith in God, man must have faith in himself also: to know who he is and what he can do and to apply himself to these principles. As temple builders I don't think we can sit back and feel the temple is completed. We must be content to do the best work we can with the whole scheme of things in mind, perhaps looking forward to the accolade 'Well done thou good and faithful servant.'"

A membership report going back to 1925 indicates an increase in membership in 1926 and 1927. 1928 began a string of loss years which extended to 1940 when there were 20,282 Master Masons in Louisiana as opposed to 35,191 in 1927. Beginning in 1940 members on the rolls rose rapidly through the war years, which growth extended to 1964 and 51,512 members. Net losses have been experienced in each year since that peak was reached in 1964.

The One Hundred and Fiftieth Annual Communication was held at Portland on May 6 and 7, 1969. M.'W.' Harold L. Chute, Grand Master, presiding.

Ten Past Grand Masters and Grand Officers, past and/or present or their representatives, of 15 other Grand Jurisdictions were received, welcomed and conducted where they were accorded the Honours of their office.

After much inquiry and research into the matter of youth education and guidance, Grand Master Chute called together the heads of the Masonic bodies in Maine and through his leadership The DeMolay and Pine Tree Youth Foundation came into being. The purposes are to encourage educational, religious and charitable programs for the benefit of DeMolay and Youth in the State of Maine. As a tax-free foundation, it is hoped that $100,000 can be raised, the income from which will be used for the Youth of Maine.

In a Decision Grand Master Chute held that Lodge Charity Funds could not be used as a donation to the DeMolay and Pine Tree Youth Foundation because the Foundation was not in distress, but he did rule that other Lodge funds could be contributed for he held that in a broad sense the Foundation's work was Masonic in that the Grand Lodge contributes to DeMolay. The Committee on Jurisprudence concurred but Grand Lodge determination of the matter was carried over until the 1970 Annual Communication.

A Long Range Special Planning Committee, composed of 5 Past Grand Masters, was appointed by the Grand Master. The Grand Master instructed this Committee to think and to look as far into the future as the members thereof wished.

Of Maine's 207 Lodges, 191 have fees of $50 or less for the Degrees, the average of all 207 Lodges being $40.13. Eighty-seven or 40% still have dues of $5.00 and only three have dues of more than $10.00. Average dues of the 207 Lodges is $6.35.

In closing the report for the Committee on DeMolay, M.'W.'.Burbank said tomorrow is just over the horizon. Take heed that our generation may make its rightful contribution to that new day. The future of Masonry may well rest upon it.

M.'W'.Harold L. Chute was re-elected and installed Grand Master.

The Grand Master said that remission of dues should be considered in all worthy cases and that suspension should be ordered or demits granted only after complete investigation has been made. "Do not be too willing to accept 'no' for an answer unless a sincere effort has been made to save a Brother from loss of membership."

Estimated receipts for the year beginning September 1, 1968, are $1,167,932, and estimated expenditures were set at $1,162,713.

In closing his address at the December 11, 1968, Quarterly Meeting Grand Master Booth said,

"If there has been any question as to the direction in which Massachusetts Masonry is moving, let me say that I am confident that it is moving ahead. Under the leadership of the man I expect you will elect as your Grand Master today, I am just as confident that it will continue to move forward. Masonry has the tools, it has the materials. We need only to make diligent and intelligent use of them.

"With faith in God, in our Country, in ourselves, and in the principles we espouse, let us step forward into an even brighter future."

The One Hundred and Fifty-First Annual Grand Communication was held in Jackson on February 11 and 12, 1969. M.'W'.T. Olin Gore, Jr., Grand Master, presiding.

Twenty Past Grand Masters were present and answered roll call. Sixteen distinguished guests from other Grand Jurisdictions were also received, escorted to the East and welcomed after the ancient manner.

A worship service on Sunday, February 9, at 5:30 p.m. preceded the opening of the Grand Lodge.

Six Emergent Communications were held—one to conduct the graveside services of M. W. Percy Mercer Lee, Past Grand Master (1937), three for the purpose of laying cornerstones of The Court House of the Second Judicial District, Palmer Children's Home and the new building of Fellowship Lodge No. 630, and two for the purpose of Dedication of New Lodge Halls.

Raised—1,234. Affiliated and Restored—993. Suspended NPD—1,057. Demitted—386. Died—1,092.

The Mississippi Masonic Home was reported to have a population of 37 of whom 25 were boys and 12 were girls.

Per Capita cost in 1968 was $1,568.51 as against $1,498.11 for 1967. Total budget for 1968 was $62,740.84.

The re-establishment of fraternal relations with the Grand Lodges of New York, New Jersey and The Netherlands recommended by the Committee on Fraternal Relations was rejected.

The concluding portion of the Grand Master's address had its theme built around the fiftieth Psalm "Call upon me in the day of trouble; I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify me," and said

"We have been through a day of trouble, brethren, and we have appreciated what has been done for us, in the spirit of our Nation and in the world itself. The Almighty has been revealing His purposes, and he has used us to reveal Himself to mankind. Only through human agency can he do it, and we, as Masons, are called on to give of that spirit throughout the whole of Masonry, and to make men realize that they can call upon the Most High, in the day of trouble, and that He will deliver them. Then we can, as we should truly glorify Him, for which purpose we have come here today."

Grand Master elected for 1969: J. Boyd Adams.

One Hundred Third Annual Communication held on June 27-28, 1969, at Havre, Montana. M. W. Emil K. Eliason, Grand Master, presiding. Thirteen Past Grand Masters of Montana were present as well as 19 Grand Officers, past and/or present of other Grand Jurisdictions, were presented, welcomed and received after the Ancient Manner.

Three Special Communications were held, one on May 31, 1969, to lay the cornerstone and to dedicate the new Temple of Polson Lodge No. 78; the others on June 29 and December 20, 1968 to install Grand Lodge officers.

Address of welcome was given by Mayor Peter Hamilton of Havre and was responded to by R. W. Craig Woods, Deputy Grand Master of Saskatchewan.

Grand Master Eliason granted 12 Dispensations and submitted 8 Recommendations, all of which were approved.

General Fund disbursements of $66,506.04 exceeded General Fund Receipts of $65,205.25 by $1,300.79. Budgeted receipts for 1969/1970 total $71,820.00 and budgeted expenditures total $67,530.00.

Death took an extraordinarily high toll during the year wherein 573 brethren journeyed to that country from whose bourne no traveler returns.

These deaths amounted to 2.50% of the 22,910 members on the rolls at 1-1-68. Suspensions N.P.D. were almost as high, there being 499 brethren suspended for this reason. As opposed to these heavy losses only 350 were raised to the Sublime Degree of Master Mason. As is the case in so many of our Grand Jurisdictions we see the old become inactive, drop out or pass away and we are not initiating enough young to replace them. The answer? It has puzzled far wiser men than I, but see the Review of Oklahoma's Proceedings included herein.

The Montana Masonic Home had 51 guests at the time of the Annual Communication; the average age, 86 years.

The R. W. Deputy Grand Master, Floyd P. Jenni, was elected and installed Grand Master and the Grand Lodge closed at 4:00 p.m. on June 28, 1969.

One Especial Communication was held—on October 28, 1968, to Dedicate and Consecrate Centennial Lodge No. 53 and to install its officers.

The Brazilian Grand Lodges of Para, Guanabara and Rio Grande do Sul were given fraternal recognition.

Grand Lodge expenditures in 1969 of $16,558.65 were under those in 1968 of $18,669.13 by $2,110.48.

The One Hundred and Eightieth Annual Communication was held in the Masonic Temple, Manchester, on Saturday, May 17, 1969. M. W. Carl A. Buswell, Grand Master, presiding.

Four Past Grand Masters and many guests from other Grand Jurisdictions were present, presented, welcomed and escorted.

Three Special and one Emergent Communications were held—the latter on February 13, 1969, at Portsmouth, for the purpose of attending the funeral service of M. W. Harold Orlo Cady, Past Grand Master (1947-1948) and Grand Secretary, who passed away on February 10, 1969.

The M. W. Grand Master issued an Edict strengthening the New Hampshire tradition of not having any Lodge opened on Sunday except for the purpose of attending divine service or attending the funeral service of a deceased brother Mason.

At the close of the Masonic Home's fiscal year on September 30, 1968, there were 41 residents, of whom 12 were men and 29 were women. The average age: 86+ years.

Grand Master Buswell opened the Grand Lodge for Lodges of Instruction in all 8 Masonic Districts during the year. Attendance ranged from 5.55% to 70.83% of the Lodge officers required to be present. The average attendance was approximately 50%. One cannot but observe that our Lodge leadership is one of the primary causes of the plight in which Masonry finds itself today. In the face of this apparent indifference, one wonders how many constituent Lodge officers may have attended the third and final Annual Session of the New Hampshire College for Masonic Knowledge to hear M. W. Frank N. Brownell, PGM of Vermont, deliver an address, the subject of which was: Freemasonry in Today's World.

An assessment of 50¢ per member was continued—10¢ of which was appropriated to DeMolay, 10¢ to the Committee on Masonic Education, and 30¢ to the Hospitalization Program of the Masonic Service Association.

General Fund receipts were $65,394.31; disbursements, $52,557.62.

R. W. Ralph H. Sloan was elected M. W. Grand Master and M. W. Carl A. Buswell, the outgoing Grand Master was elected R. W. Grand Secretary, to succeed M. W. Harold O. Cady, PGM, Grand Secretary, who was raised to the Celestial Lodge on February 10, 1969, after having served the Craft faithfully and well through many years of devotion to the principles which are fundamental to Masonic ideals.

Grand Lodge officers were installed and the Grand Lodge closed in form.

Resolutions were adopted authorizing the purchase of land from the New Jersey Masonic Home and Charity Foundation, near the Masonic Home at Burlington Township on which a Grand Lodge office building, Masonic library and lodge meeting room would be constructed.

Construction of Retirement Homes for the aged was also authorized at Point Pleasant, N. J. This is a very interesting development.

The Report of the Public Relations and Publicity Committee is so revealing we are taking the liberty of quoting it in its entirety. The Report follows:

"Brethren:

"Your Committee on Public Relations and Publicity herewith submits its report of work and activities during the year of 1968.

"Due to conditions beyond the control of the committee or the Most Worshipful Grand Master, nothing was done by this committee until August, but it has been very active since that time. It first formulated a list of suggestions for improvement of lodges, education and information for candidates, cooperation with families of candidates and members, and improvement of public relations and sent this, with a booklet on 'How You Can Be a Masonic News Reporter' to every Worshipful Master in the State. It was explained that when a merchant's business begins to fall off he does not keep saying that the good qualities of his product should attract customers, but he goes to the customer and finds out why something is wrong. The same is true of Masonry.

"After the program had been allowed some time to get started, a questionnaire was sent to all Worshipful Masters asking fourteen questions as to progress made, the results to be included in this report. This was a very short time to show results, but it is indeed encouraging to know that great advances have been made and more are being planned.

"The committee wishes to express its appreciation to the Most Worshipful Grand Master and other Grand Lodge officers for their support and encouragement.

Analysis of Questionnaires

"Of 371 lodges in this jurisdiction, only 131 Worshipful Masters replied. Thus, only a little over one-third or about 35 percent were sufficiently interested to let the committee know what they were doing, or planning to do.

"This is, in itself, a most revealing fact and goes far to answer the perennial complaints of 'Lack of attendance, lack of workers and lack of petitions,' which is heard everywhere. For this reason, and the analysis of replies which are briefly summarized herein, this committee believes that this is the most important and revealing survey yet made, and shows clearly why there are so many of such complaints.

"Brethren, poor attendance, lack of workers and few petitions are the results of our own delinquencies, and this survey shows exactly what we have failed to do and what we should be doing to remedy the situation. We know that our membership has been declining in the last few years, more than some other jurisdictions, so we know something can be done to change that trend.

"It is interesting to note that those who complain the most show by their answers to the questions that they are doing nothing to improve the lodge or to interest its members or their families, or to let the good men of the community who might want to become Masons know that there is a Masonic Lodge in their community, or that it is active in any way. (Personal inquiries in a number of cities have shown this.) Prospective candidates do not want to join a dying organization, or one which is not progressing.

"In that connection, it is also interesting to note that these answers show that in every case where the lodge was active, was interested in its members and their families, kept the premises clean and fresh and let the people of the community know that it was alive and doing things, there is good attendance, plenty of workers and numerous petitions. That fact is proof of the value of this program.

Many Suggestions Were Made

"Sixty of the Worshipful Masters responded to the request for suggestions, and these will be included in summarized form hereinafter. Some were very appropriate and helpful.

"One question met with approval by almost all of the replies, that being a proposed celebration of a Masonic anniversary in the near future, with floats, teams of speakers, films on Masonry, singers and musical groups which would travel over the state during the anniversary year. Cooperation of the lodges in this project was offered by most lodges. Making of a historical film for such use was mentioned in the plan as a part of such a celebration. This has been done by other jurisdictions with excellent results.

"In many cases, the reports showed that the lodge was small, being in a rural district, and that many younger men who might have petitioned for Masonry had migrated to the larger cities. Yet, it appears that these smaller lodges have closer fellowship and more individual members who 'practice Masonry' than some of the larger lodges. This indicates that the larger lodges should make available degree teams, workers and teachers to assist these smaller lodges at any time they are needed. To merge with other lodges or to surrender charters is not the answer.

Summary of Answers to Questions

"Fourteen questions were asked of each Worshipful Master and answers were 'Yes' or 'No'. They show the true condition of our lodges and what should be done to improve them. These are a cross section of all kinds of lodges and a fair representation of all. Here are the answers, tabulated. Although they are 'statistics' they are not dry but intensely interesting in letting Masonry look at itself impartially. (Notice the great improvements already made and plans for more.)

"1. Meetings were held with members and their families present by 79 lodges, with a total of 114 meetings. These were to give information on Masonry to members, their families and candidates and families. Forty-eight lodges did not hold such meetings. Eleven lodges reported showing the educational film, 'In the Hearts of Men,' at such meetings, with others planning to show it later. Three members of one lodge bought copies of the film to show to any organizations interested. Many more such meetings are planned, as good results were shown from these.

"2. Committees to recommend improvements in the lodge premises were appointed by 84 Worshipful Masters and improvements have been made in signs by 20 lodges, painting and decorating by 41 lodges, air conditioning by seven lodges, roofing by 13 lodges and remodeling by 52 lodges. New furnishings, carpets and other improvements were included under 'remodeling' and several reported that as the result of such surveys new lodge buildings were being planned. This is real progress.

"3. Sixty-two lodges reported that more Masons were becoming active in civic work. That was one of the suggestions made.

"4. To let the public know what the lodges were doing, 42 lodges appointed 'Masonic Reporters' to see that local papers obtained the information about such activities, and 23 reported that articles had already been published, with more to come. This was, and is, one of the prime objectives of this committee, and it is believed this start as shown by the replies, is worth much more than all the work and expense of the committee. It is a beginning which should be followed up and enlarged. We must let the prospective candidates know that Masonry is alive and active.

"5. Reports of awards made under the Grand Master's School Program were made by 31 lodges, with 221 students honored. Eleven lodges stated that local school officials were not cooperative and nothing could be done on this. Sixty-three lodges did nothing on this program. Several lodges reported that scholarships were awarded to outstanding students by the lodges.

"6. The suggestion that professional and business people be asked to make talks to the lodges brought replies that 22 lodges had done this with good results, but 91 lodges did not.

"7. Of course, most lodges cooperated, more or less, with the appendant bodies. Eastern Star was listed by 118 lodges, Rainbow Girls 62, DeMolay Boys by 33, Amaranth by 15, York Rite by 28 and Scottish Rite by 42, with others, such as Boy Scouts by 13.

"8. Ritual music, usually poor, was improved by 27 lodges, but 104 did nothing.

"9. Saints John Days were celebrated by 43 lodges while 84 paid no attention to them. Most stated that such observances were on regular meeting nights or at district meetings.

"10. Historical material is being compiled by 19 lodges and 11 lodges are doing historical research. This is to be used in preparing histories of the lodges and for use of the Oklahoma Lodge of Research.

"11. It appears, from answers to this question, that almost all lodges would like to see some Masonic anniversary celebrated. As noted, this would be a year-long celebration with much fanfare and which would be reported all over the state by newspaper, radio and television. This may require some financing but it will be well received, according to these returns, and should help every lodge in the state.

"12. Many lodges reported that no Entered Apprentices had dropped out for many years, while 84 lodges stated that a check had been made to determine why some who started dropped out. Twenty-two said the candidates claimed they did not find what had been expected, four said the ritual was not understood, four gave insufficient instruction in Masonic information as the cause, shabby lodge premises were noted by two, while 56 said candidates were not interested enough to learn the categorical lectures, giving lack of time as the usual reason, or lack of ability to memorize the work. Of course, we all know that anyone can learn the categorical lectures if he has a real desire to do so. That statement is made by one who has taught 650 men their E.A. categoricals without a single dropout. Therefore, all these dropouts should be attributed to insufficient instructions or information about Masonry, its background, its principles and teachings, and why it stands for all the things which true Americans stand for. Here, it should be emphasized, as in other Masonic discussions, that everyone finds time to do those things he wants most to do, and that if Masonry is made attractive there should be no dropouts. Our rate should be not over 1/10th of one percent, instead of the average of six percent and more than twelve percent in a recent year. (Here, again, in the film, 'In the Hearts of Men' would start to instill the desire for Masonry.)

"13. Eighty-five lodges reported that a survey had been made to find out why members were suspended for nonpayment of dues. Fifty men had lost interest while 12 complained of hypocritical members, nine said Masonry was not what he wanted, 23 couldn't afford to pay dues, 18 said they were too old and poor to pay, 35 stated they didn't have time for Masonry and six others have various reasons. Here, again, the basic or fundamental fact is that Masonry was not attractive enough to hold these members. Lack of Masonic knowledge is the basic cause.

"14. Suggestions made are outlined below:

Ideas and Suggestions of Worshipful Masters

"All want more interest and more workers and petitions, but few make any suggestions as to how to achieve this. Fifteen wanted younger officers, fewer old men and more modern ideas, but none of these offered any suggestions as to how to attain that goal. Several smaller lodges reported that no candidates had been initiated in two or three years. One Worshipful Master said he notified every member of the lodge by phone of a lodge picnic, but only three showed up.

"Some things which helped were reported as: Younger officers, many meetings with wives and families, good instruction of candidates and their families prior to initiation, talks on Masonry, presentation of Bibles to new members, letting newspapers know what the lodge was doing and why, more participation of Masons in civic affairs and adding new activities for members and their families.

"One lodge with only 78 members reported that attendance was good, there were plenty of workers and six candidates were in the process of going through the degrees with more coming. Why? Because they have all kinds of activities with members and their families participating and they inform candidates what to expect and what Masonry is and what it stands for prior to beginning the work. Another reported that instructive talks to members, new and old, helped much in stimulating interest. One stated that the regular meetings were opened earlier so that everyone could go home earlier, and that was a great help in venting complaints of wives that they were 'Masonic Widows.'

"One report was that the members who sat on the sidelines were bored and did not attend for that reason. The answer to that is that if a member does not take part in the work, he becomes bored, the same as if he heard the same sermon by his minister every Sunday morning. How to interest every member is a problem to be solved by each lodge, but if candidates are told that spectators are not necessary or requested, no guilty feelings should result. Usually, something can be found for every member who comes to lodge, such as working on refreshments, improving the lodge premises, making plans for activities, writing letters to shut-ins and the sick, and a dozen other things. One lodge sponsors a baseball team of boys, raising money ($435.00) by pancake dinners to pay expenses. One Worshipful Master says that instruction of wives of candidates has cut the dropout rate to nothing.

"An unusual request was for a cypher ritual code of the esoteric work. Of course, he doesn't know that it is easier to learn ritual from an oral teacher than from the written page. Another voice the concern of many, including this Grand Lodge, that the funeral service is both too long and too doleful, and wants it revised, since it is about the only thing Masonic which the public ever hears. Many petitions come from persons who first learned about Masonry by attending a funeral.

"Much more can be said, but all this is summed up in the statement of one Worshipful Master that 'I am sorry that I didn't have this program at the beginning of my year as Worshipful Master, because I think it is the best thing which has happened to Masonry since I have been a Mason.' Many others approved the program and expressed similar commendations.

Conclusion

"All this shows that a program such as has been started could be carried on as a regular project of the Grand Lodge, with many good men recruited to assist this committee by visiting lodges and assisting in any way possible in bringing new life and virility to Masonry. It also shows that all the pessimistic talk among Masons should be dried up and optimism substituted, along with actual changes and improvements which are clearly pointed out by this survey. Later surveys and checks should be made from time to time to keep enthusiasm high. The cost is small, considering the fine results obtained and to be achieved in the future.

"Lastly, the great response to the suggestion of a statewide Masonic anniversary celebration indicates the need for something of that kind to brighten the public image of Masonry, revive interest of its members and bring many candidates, as well as help prevent further decline in membership. Such programs have been successful in other jurisdictions and should be well worth the effort here.

"Respectfully submitted,
"THE PUBLIC RELATIONS AND PUBLICITY COMMITTEE"

One Hundred and Fourteenth Annual Communication, Toronto, July 16 and 17, 1969. M. W. Donald J. Gunn, Grand Master, presiding. Six Past Grand Masters, including one Honorary Past Grand Master, were present, introduced and properly welcomed. Grand Officers, past and/or present, including M. W. William A. Hooks, N. C. Grand Master and R. W. Robert P. Dudley, Assistant to the N. C. Grand Secretary, from 28 other Grand Jurisdictions were welcomed and received after the ancient manner.

M. W. Joseph Alonzo Hearn, Past Grand Master, (1953-55) and Grand Treasurer 1960-68, passed away on December 25, 1968.

M. W. Brother Gunn said in his report:

"The Grand Secretary's report again shows that we have had the largest decline in membership in any year. The number of suspensions for non-payment of dues exceeds that of the previous year as does the total for resignations. I dealt with this matter in my Address of last year in the following words:

"I would emphasize most strongly to Worshipful Masters and Lodge Secretaries in particular that all possible steps be taken to reduce resignations and suspensions for non-payment of dues in the coming year. No doubt a number of such defections is inevitable, but all reasonable action is necessary to prevent such losses. There is no excuse for any lodge not taking all possible steps to prevent such withdrawals from our ranks."

"The problem of Suspensions for N.P.D. is a matter of great concern, not only to the Grand Masters of this Jurisdiction but to many others as well. The Grand Master of one American Grand Lodge advised his brethren through the D.D.G.M.'s and other Grand Lodge officers that no brother should be suspended for N.P.D. if he lived within a day's travel from his lodge unless he received a personal visit from a member or members of his lodge. He personally investigated numerous cases, and the results were not at all pleasing. Three quotations from his Address are as follows:

"The proven lack of communication between lodge and members, in too many instances, was an appalling sidelight revealed in the study of N.P.D.'s. In a letter from one member, the following sentence appeared: "I never heard from my lodge in X number of years while I was a member except for dues notices."

"What a great impression we Masons must make upon the non-Masonic friends and relatives of a seriously ill, or even dying Brother, who receives nothing but dunning letters and finally that last registered mail! This very thing has occurred more times than I care to consider, and having it happen just once is cause for all of us to be ashamed. A personal contact is an absolute necessity before a member is dropped for non-payment of dues. A considerable number of brethren about to be dropped for non-payment of dues, with whom I was allowed to communicate, were obviously pleased to hear from me and many paid their dues with a renewed interest in Masonry because somebody cared."

"This is strong language, my brethren, and I am not suggesting that our situation is entirely similar. I have included part of his remarks in my Address to point up the advisability of every Worshipful Master in this Jurisdiction taking a personal interest in the matter of outstanding dues. I would strongly urge all Worshipful Masters to appoint one or more brethren to investigate each case thoroughly and report back to him before drastic action becomes necessary. I am sure that by this method our Suspensions for N.P.D. would be substantially reduced."

"I also strongly recommend that requests for demits from brethren still living in the jurisdiction of their lodge should be personally contacted by the same or a similar committee before the demit is granted."

M.'W.' Bruce B. Foster was elected and installed Grand Master and the Grand Lodge closed in Ample Form at 11:45 a.m. on Thursday, July 17, 1969.

One Hundred Nineteenth Annual Communication held at Portland, June 11, 12 and 13, 1969. M.'W.' Warren A. McMinimee, Grand Master, presiding. Past Grand Masters present—15. Past and/or present Grand Lodge Officers from other Grand Jurisdictions present—12. All were received, cordially welcomed, escorted, and honored after the ancient manner.

One Occasional Communication was held at Sandy, Oregon, on May 10 1969, for the purpose of laying the cornerstone of the City Hall and Public Library.

Grand Master McMinimee granted 40 Dispensations, a great many of which were to waive statutory time between degrees, to change stated meeting dates and places, and for the installation of officers.

In concluding his address, Grand Master McMinimee urged the Grand Lodge to give favorable consideration to the recommended removal of Grand Lodge offices to Forest Grove. By resolution the Trustees of the Grand Lodge were empowered to remodel the Children's Home Building at Forest Grove to house the Grand Lodge offices, Grand Lodge Library, and the Grand Lodge Museum and that these functions be transferred to that location.

The Grand Orator, W.' Ronald A. Watson, in a magnificent oration began with a quotation from the work of John Donne:

"No Man Is An Island Entire of Itself. Every man is a piece of the continent, a part of the main. If a clod be washed away by the Sea, Europe is the less, as well as if a promontory were, as well as if the man of thy friend were, or if thine own were. Any man's death diminishes me because I am involved in mankind and, therefore, never send to know for whom the bell tolls, it tolls for thee."

—John Donne

and ended his address with a quotation, thusly:

"... We must search for and implement new ideas in our service to society. We must involve our masonic fraternity as an integral part of the overall idea of service to mankind and grow outwardly, otherwise we will probably find our fraternity 'an island in the still, stagnant, backwaters of humanity, creating no ripples and slowly receding from the mainstream of society.' No one person has all the ideas which may be thought of to resolve the problems of today, but I urge you to subscribe to this philosophy, 'Nothing ventured, nothing gained.' A wise sage of the past has said—

"The strongest force in the world is an idea whose time has arrived."

Total assets of the Grand Lodge as of April 30, 1969, were $7,007,449.90; the General Fund had $379,886.79, and the Educational Fund $734,834.27.

At the Special Communication holden at the Masonic Temple, Brisbane, on Wednesday, July 17, 1968, at which M. 'W.' J.A.R. Thompson, Grand Master, presided, His Excellency Sir Alan James Mansfield, PDGM, Governor of the State of Queensland, was elected and installed Grand Master.

Grand Masters of the Grand Lodges of Western Australia, Tasmania, Victoria, New South Wales and South Australia, attended by their Grand Officers were presented and welcomed.

In his address the M. 'W.' Grand Master said, in part,

"Freemasonry is not confined to the pages of the Ritual or to the inside of the Lodge. Freemasons must at all times be living examples of the principles and tenets of the Craft. These principles and tenets should be made known more widely than they are so that those not in the Craft may understand and appreciate it as a code of life which befits all men of goodwill and not regarded as a secret society of a religion in itself, which it clearly is not. The only parts of our Ceremonies which must not be disclosed are those secrets which we have undertaken not to divulge and which enable one Mason to recognize another. These ends can be achieved if all in the Craft will be active practising Freemasons three hundred and sixty-five days a year and not merely when they come to Lodge Meetings. Set an example of service to others and let the world know that in doing so you are following the dictates of your Craft. I, therefore, seek the active and positive support of each one of my Brethren in this task of showing the true image of our Order namely that it is one which is actuated by the highest standards of morality and that in carrying out its principles and tenets, its members bring many benefits to the whole of the Community and not just to the Craft alone. I pray that during my term as Grand Master, the Craft may prosper and that the Great Architect of the Universe will bless and bring to all the peoples of the world universal peace and brotherhood."

The retiring Grand Master M. W. J. A. R. Thompson, who served as Grand Master for 3 years, accepted the appointment as Pro Grand Master for the ensuing year.

Centennial Celebration

Montreal, Thursday, June 5, 1969

M. W. John B. Nayler, Grand Master, presiding

The Grand Lodge of Quebec was instituted on October 20, 1869. The Centennial Celebration was begun on Sunday, June 4, 1969, with a Vesper Service, or Service of Rededication, at 4:30 p.m. in St. George's Anglican Church. The Grand Lodge banquet was held on the same day at 6:30 p.m. in the Grand Salon, Queen Elizabeth Hotel, Montreal, with a total of 1,010 in attendance.

Special Communications were held in Arvida, Quebec, on September 21, 1968, to constitute and consecrate a new Lodge, and on March 14, 1969, for the purpose of instituting a new Lodge at Rawdon.

The Ninety-Ninth Annual Communication was opened in Ample Form in the Masonic Temple in Montreal on June 5, 1969. All Grand Lodge Officers were present, as were 6 Past Grand Masters and 26 officers, past and present, of other Grand Lodges.

Seven constituent lodges were not represented.

Grand Master Nayler refused a dispensation, requested by a lodge to initiate a candidate who was under 21 years of age.

A magnificent sermon was delivered at the Service of Dedication by the R. W. Reverend C. Ritchie Bell. He spoke of Anniversaries and very adroitly turned to the many things Masonry had offered during the 100 years of the Grand Lodge's existence.

The guest speaker, M. W. W. L. Wright, Past Grand Master (Ontario) after a nostalgic approach presented a full-grown concept of Freemasonry in a changing world. He quoted Robert Louis Stevenson's "The world is so full of a number of things; I'm sure we shall be as happy as kings" to which the speaker added,

"... But alas for all the grandeur of the dream, there was a fatal flaw, the central character in the drama—man! Progress is not measured in bathtubs and cadillacs, or in man's conquest of nature: it is measured in man's conquest of himself. We have found that we are wise enough to build the atom bomb, but not good enough to be entrusted with it. Give us television to provide information and recreation and we discolour it with crime. We seem to have found all the answers but the important one, viz: HOW TO LIVE WITH GOD, WITH OTHERS and WITH OURSELVES."

Grand Master-elect G. Egerton Brown and his officers were installed and the Grand Lodge was closed in Ample Form at 5:55 p.m. on June 5, 1969, to convene again in Annual Communication in Montreal on June 4, 1970.

All Grand Officers were present, as were 9 Past Grand Masters and 19 past and/or present Grand Officers from 14 other Grand Jurisdictions, all of whom were presented, greeted and welcomed after the ancient manner.

Lodges represented 305 plus 3 under Dispensation.

There were 6 Special Communications—one to lay the cornerstone of a public building, two to lay the cornerstones and to dedicate new temple buildings, two to dedicate new temple buildings and one to consecrate, dedicate and constitute Forest Acres Lodge No. 410.

Grand Master Grimball issued 5 Rulings, and made 3 Recommendations, as follows:

"1. I strongly urge the adoption of the pending resolution to amend Article 82 of the Constitution so as to increase Grand Lodge dues by 50¢ per capita and Masonic Relief by 50¢ per capita.

"2. I am convinced that the Grand Lodge of South Carolina can and should do more for charity. I recommend that a Special Committee be appointed to investigate the advisability and feasibility of further charitable projects for our Grand Lodge.

"3. In my opinion our Grand Lodge suffers from a lack of adequate and proper public relations. At the recent Conference of Grand Masters held in Washington, D. C., in February 1969, I discovered that six Grand Jurisdictions carry an annual appropriation in their budgets for the employment of a public relations firm. I recommend that we make such an appropriation this year, in order to provide adequate publicity for the activities of the Grand Lodge which should properly be called to the attention of all men."

One Ruling was not approved and Recommendation No. 3 was not adopted.

Revenues for the year 1969/70 were estimated at $145,611.85 and expenses at $94,622.00.

The Grand Lodge was opened in ample form at 2:15 p.m. after solemn prayer which was offered by the Grand Chaplain, Brother Reverend J. R. Lawton.

All lodges were represented except three.

In his address the M. W. Grand Master, among other things, said,

"One of the many bright facets in our Tasmanian Freemasonry is surely the work and interest shown by you, my Brethren, in our Masonic Homes. I had during the year the honour of opening extensions to the Homes both in Launceston and in Hobart and had the pleasure of being present at a Christmas Party for residents of the Southern Homes. It was a joy to me and to my wife who accompanied me to see at first hand our aged folk being given such good accommodation and care in our two Homes. I do comment to all Brethren this aspect of Freemasonry, for I believe it is not only a work of supreme value to the Community but it creates a true image of what we stand for in the world of today."

A gain has been reported in each year since 1941.

The Grand Lodge of Virginia extended fraternal recognition to the Grand Loja de Colombia, Bogota, and the Grand Loja Do Estado Da Guanabara, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

Our symbolic hat is off to M. W. Archer B. Gay for the magnificent manner in which he approaches the problem of declining membership throughout the realm of Freemasonry in his Foreword, and for his thoroughness in reviewing and reporting the Proceedings of Virginia's sister Grand Lodges around the world.

Budgeted income for 1969 was $597,100.00, or some $72,500.00 more than was budgeted for 1968. Of this, $380,270.00 was for Masonic Home operations and $64,600.00 was for the operation of the Grand Lodge. Other items make up the difference.

Adopted—a Resolution (69-1) making it illegal for a Brother to be installed as Master of a Lodge unless he is able to confer the ritual of the first section of the three Degrees and to exhibit a thorough knowledge of the ritual of the second section of the Degree of Master Mason.

The Report of the Grand Orator was composed of a magnificent address in which Brother Alden H. Jones said, in part:

"Our country was founded in the minds of men and built in a wild and unfriendly land because men decided that the effort and the sacrifices were worthwhile. It was challenge and response every step of the way. They responded by calling on the resources of the mind and spirit and they moved steadily ahead. This is the kind of response that is carrying our flag to the moon. It is the same response that will carry man far beyond the meager goals of fuzzy thinking and false philosophy.

"We, as Masons, find our lives surrounded and indeed brushed by the trends of the age and the news of the day and our furrowed brows reflect our concern. We wonder how we fit into this picture and how we can best translate our obligations into actions which will produce a measure of the perfection and tranquility which all men seek and should share. We should recognize these circumstances, not as a dilemma, but rather as an opportunity which challenges us to a response for which we are specially prepared.

"We are engaged in a search for truth and we know that somewhere in the conflicting tumult and shouting there is truth. We know also that others seek truth with equal sincerity as we and that we must examine each proffer on its merits, for we find truth in strange places. On the surface we see nothing worthwhile in the philosophy of the militants who swear to destroy the establishment and to take over the Dean's office at the university. For this prostitution of his precious intellect and his choice of an objective I have only contempt but for his willingness to get wholeheartedly involved in a crusade, I must confess to a grudging envy. How I wish that more of my friends and brothers were equally willing to get involved—in Masonry.

"Consider further, the irreverent substitute for a man who tells us 'God is Dead.' Can any possible element of truth exist in such a statement? Look closely my friends and note that even our rattlebrained adversary conceded that there was once a God.

"We go down the list and we find a few pearls of wisdom, but generally we find only shortcomings in the new philosophies, and where does that leave us? We've shot them down but, meanwhile, our own philosophies—patriotism, tradition, honesty, charity, brotherhood—have been challenged. People ask, 'How much does honor pay nowadays; and integrity and charity and faith?' So, we haven't really made our point.

"But we try again and we say, 'Look, our country is big and strong because many people for many years have put their hearts and hands to the task of making this ideal of liberty and equality of opportunity succeed. Can't we work together to continue the progress?'

"Then what do we hear in return? The Hippie says, 'Tell it the way it is, baby, not the way it ought to be'; and the campus activist says, 'We demand to have two seats on the bridge and three seats in the engine room of the Ship of State and you have two hours in which to agree to these demands. They are not negotiable'; and the leader of the Non-violent Committee for the Spreading of Brotherly Love shifts his shotgun from one shoulder to the other and says, 'We want 500 million dollars reparation or we are going to burn the country to the ground and start all over.'

"Well, about that time, the president of a great university looks up from his pad on the gymnasium floor and says, 'I think these demands are reasonable' and the senior senator from the sovereign State of Confusion says profoundly, 'Let us carefully weigh the positive and the negative and ascertain the imponderable, lest the compromise which the dictates of conscience prescribe sound the demise of the beautiful voice of liberty in this grand and glorious country of ours.' I couldn't hear the rest of what he said because just then two fire trucks and an ambulance screamed past.

"Forgive me, my brethren, if my case has sounded somewhat ridiculous. My point, of course, was this: We will accomplish nothing if we attempt to compete under other people's rules; we will accomplish little more if we attempt to reason with people who are satisfied that they have already carried reason to its ultimate end and that they have captured truth. Ours is a system which has studied life's challenges and produced, in great detail, a guide to our responses. I need not recite your obligations nor repeat the philosophical lectures of our degrees. They are too well known to you to require more than my brotherly commendation. Their application awaits only your individual responses—according to your interpretation of your duties, and your willingness and ability to get involved.

"Our search for truth will be more effective at this particular point in time while the pendulum of sophisticated brain-bending has swung far to the left, if we swing equally far to the right and work from a position of respect for the basic dignity of human nature."

Death removed 1,718 members of subordinate lodges during the year; M. W. John Mechimi Roberts, Grand Master 1932-1933, passed away on October 21, 1968.

The Masonic Home had, at year's end, 176 guests, of whom 44 were men and 132 women. One was 100 years old; 40 were in their 90's; 104 in their 80's; 30 in their 70's, and one was 69.

M. W. Frank E. Ulin was elected Grand Master and he and his officers were installed. The Grand Lodge was closed in Ample Form on June 19, 1969.

Grand Master Boyd made 81 official visitations during his year as Grand Master and presided over 8 special communications of his Grand Lodge called for various Masonic purposes. The Grand Master granted 9 Dispensations, denied three, issued 4 Edicts and made 2 Rulings.

One lodge was consolidated with another.

Fifty-year Veterans awards were given to 234 Venerable brethren.

In concluding his report, Grand Master Boyd said,

"The state of the Craft in West Virginia is good, and this I say in spite of a one-half per cent loss in membership over the year. Our Grand Secretary reports our numbers as totaling 47,119 as of June 30, 1969, just 250 fewer than our total numbers on June 30, 1968. We lost by death one Mason more than the number of Masons we raised. Why we lost the other 249 Masons should be a challenge to each of us."

Finances are strong; cash receipts were $1,688.51 greater than disbursements of $55,592.26.

The Masonic Scholarship Endowment Trust of West Virginia was reported to have become of age and notice was sent to every high school and secondary private school advising them that scholarships will be available to needy West Virginia students desiring to attend West Virginia University or Marshall University in the academic year 1970-71.

An educational talk delivered by Brother John R. Boucher said, in part,

"The Statute of Liberty stands on an island in New York harbor, originally its meaning was, Liberty, enlightening the world. The right hand holds a torch—the left hand clasps a scroll representing the Declaration of Independence—chains around the feet were broken. Now—by our own complacency, indifference or ignorance—the light from the torch grows dim—the writing on the scroll has become smeared and the chains are becoming welded together again. Isn't it about time that we became educated as to our own freedoms—break again the chains that are binding us—cleanse and raise on high our Declaration of Independence—fire the torch—lower it, and apply it to the posterior of those that seek to destroy the freedoms inside our own country?

"What was good for my father—was good, but isn't it time to seek more than Masonic Education. You and I should strive to become educated Masons, in order that when we give the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag or our Country—we do not merely speak words from our mouths—but words—proud words, that we feel in our hearts—One Nation, under God."

In addressing the Grand Lodge the Honorable Clifford P. Hansen, United States Senator from Wyoming, said among other things,

"As we gather here this morning I ask you, 'How can America be worthy of the influence that we assert world-wide?' There are American minorities today, often militant, lawless, and we can think of them as destructive influences in our society. But before we get too persnickity in condemning others, let's remember that the destructive influences that we see today are not limited to the oppressed, to the least well educated. They include, also, the wealthy, the idealistic, some who are power-hungry and who would be perfectly willing, I am convinced, to destroy this country, this government as we know it today, if it would enhance their own personal aggrandizement. How are we to demonstrate to the rest of the world that we are worthy of the emulation and of the idealism, indeed, that some of them ascribe to us as a nation? How can we listen to the voices of dissent in this country and give proper recognition to legitimate complaints without wrecking our country? I'm convinced, once again, we need to reflect upon the needs for order. I think that those persons with whom many of us do not agree, can be heard and indeed have a right to be heard. And I want to do my part in seeing that they have that right, so long as they are willing to extend that same right to other people. I don't think there is anything wrong at all with a person who chooses getting up and extolling the virtues of communism in this country. I don't happen to agree with him at all, but I would hope that the time never comes when any person sincerely believing in something will be denied the opportunity to speak his mind. But I add this important proviso, and that is that he extend to every other person the right to respond to him, the right to express an entirely different point of view, if there are others holding entirely different points of view."

The Ninety-Sixth Annual Communication will be held at Sheridan. Elected Grand Master—Harry E. Wimer.

One Hundred Seventh Annual Communication held at Guadalajara Hilton Hotel, Guadalajara, Mexico on March 7 and 8, 1969, M. 'W.' James L. D'Acosta, Grand Master, presiding. Eight Past Grand Masters and nine Grand Lodge officers, past and/or present, were presented, introduced, welcomed, escorted and received after the ancient manner.

Three Special Communications were held—one on March 6, 1969, to consecrate the premises for the use of the Grand Lodge Annual Communication at the Guadalajara Hilton Hotel; another was held on March 7, 1969, for the purpose of dedicating and consecrating the Temple of Guadalajara Lodge No 5 and welcoming the Distinguished visitors. The other was held on November 20, 1968, to lay the cornerstone of the new Masonic Temple of Guadalajara Lodge No. 5.

The Grand Masters Banquet was held in the banquet hall of the Guadalajara Hilton Hotel at which M. 'W.' Ben W. Graybill was the principal speaker.

The Grand Orator, at one point in his oration, said,

"In our every day lives there will be many times when we may have great need to seek God and to ask Him for help and guidance, or to give thanks, and it is as well to remember that He will not be discovered if we simply try to imagine Him from some speculative reasoning, or in remote places. People have found Him not in any imagined existence outside and apart from the things we know, but nearer at hand, existing in the real things, and in the eternal values. In the safe things and the sure places He will be found in proportion to their certainty. He will be found among those who truly have Masonry in their hearts, free from suspicion and interference. He is to be discovered in the five senses, in the seven liberal arts and sciences, and in any accurate and liberal knowledge. He will not be found in the poison of prejudice and propaganda, but He will be found in the History and the traditions of the Craft. He will be found in the beauty of the seas, and the skies, and the fields, and in the corner of the street we think most kindly: in the little garden or bit of the woods we think most quiet and loveliest. Let us hope that He will ever be found in our Masonic Temples and meeting places fostered by the sane and the kindly spirit of the Fraternity.
